MANY HUNTERS REPORT DEER KILLS TODAY

With snow flurries in some sections of the county this morning and with temperatures around the freezing mark, thousands of deer hunters today began what is expected to be an "excellent season."

Adams County hunters began reporting kills shortly after the season opened at 7 o'clock this morning and their reports indicate that state estimate of a "possible record harvest during the antlered deer season" may be born out.

The season will continue for two weeks, followed by a two-day antlerless deer season starting December 14.

Hunting hours are from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily, except Sunday.

EARLY KILLS TODAY

Clark W. Staley, Gettysburg R. 1, shot a six-point, 140-pound buck in Cumberland Twp. 10 minutes after the season opened this morning.

Rosser S. Wickline, York Springs R. 1, shot a 130-pound four-point buck at 7:15 north of York Springs at "The Peak" on the Adams-York County line.

Roy Heintzelman, Gettysburg R. 1, shot a seven-pointer near Little Round Top at 7:05 o'clock and was the first to report his kill to The Gettysburg Times this morning. He estimated the buck weighed 130 pounds.

William R. Payne, Biglerville, killed a 160-pound seven-pointer at 7:30 o'clock near Knoxlyn.

Paul Kuykendall shot a seven-point buck weighing about 140 pounds at 7:37 o'clock near his home along the Hanover Rd.

Mrs. Harry Marling, Gettysburg R. 1, shot an eight-point 190-pound buck near Harper's Hill this morning at 8:15.

Rev. Robert Paden, Fairfield, shot a three-point, 110-lb. buck this morning at 7:05 o'clock along the Mt. Hope Rd.

Wayne McLaughlin, Fairfield, killed a four-point buck that dressed about 125 pounds this morning at 7:30 near Camp Happy Valley.

Michael H. Kane, Biglerville R. 2, killed a buck with an eight-point rack near his home at 9 o'clock. The deer weighed about 130 pounds.

Richard Stuch, 125 W. Middle St., shot a six-point buck at 10 a.m. on Wolf Hill. The deer weighed 125 pounds.

Twelve-year-old Ray Baker Jr., Gettysburg R. 3, killed a spike buck at Mt. Hope about noon. It weighed 100 pounds.

GEORGE SMITH DIES SUNDAY AT BONNEAUVILLE

George V. Smith, 67, Bonneauville, died of a heart attack Sunday morning at 5:15 o'clock at his home a short time after being stricken. He had been under a doctor's care for some time.

Mr. Smith was a retired carpenter and a former state highways Department employee. His early life was spent in the Mt. Rock section but in recent years resided at Bonneauville. He was a son of the late Plus and Laura (Lawrence) Smith.

He was twice married. His first wife, the former Violet M. Topper, died 14 years ago and three years ago Mr. Smith married Mary Weaver of New Oxford R. 2.

These 10 children from his first marriage survive: John J. Smith, Hanover; Charles W. Aspers R. D.; Harold P. and Claude I. Littlestown R. 2; Mrs. Richard Neider, Mrs. Dale Felix and Mrs. Norman Little, all of Bonneauville; Mrs. Nelson Weaver, Hagerstown; and Mrs. James Gehart and Mrs. John Bushey, both of Bonneauville. There are 31 grandchildren. A sister, Miss Corine Smith, Hanover R. 4, and two brothers, Harry R. and Raymond, both of Hanover R. 4, also survive.

Mr. Smith was a member of St. Joseph's Catholic Church of Bonneauville and of the Holy Name Society.

There will be a funeral Mass at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning in St. Joseph's Church with the Rev. Fr. Louis Forgeng officiating. Interment will be made in the parish cemetery. Prayers will be said at the Walter Funeral Home in McSherrystown Tuesday evening.

Local Resident Has 99th Birthday

Mrs. Sarah Ellen (Myers) Trimmer, 254 York St., marked her 99th birthday today.

A resident of New Chester most of her life, she moved to Gettysburg to reside with a daughter, Mrs. Norway Weaver, 254 York St. about five years ago. Her husband, George F. Trimmer, died 22 years ago.

She has two daughters, Mrs. Weaver and Mrs. Georgianna Groupe, Hanover; 14 grandchildren, 24 great-grandchildren and eight great-great-grandchildren.

FR. WILDEMAN SPEAKER FOR DEANERY NCCW

The Rev. John Wildeman, assistant pastor of St. Francis Xavier Church, was guest speaker at the open meeting of the Coneago Deanery Council of Catholic Women Sunday afternoon in the social room of Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, Abbottstown. The subject of "Ecumenism" was discussed by Father Wildeman, together with "The Position of the Laity in the Church." The discourse included a series of slides, many of which were taken in Rome by the speaker, during the first session of the Vatican Council in 1962. Father Wildeman has been appointed representative of the Christian Understanding Program of the Harrisburg diocese in the deanery and is available to speak on this subject at the invitation of Catholic and non-Catholic organizations alike.

Father Wildeman recommended the "National Catholic Reporter," a laymen-edited weekly, as a source of information for individuals about common problems which arise from council decisions. He challenged the council members to feel obligated to be informed and to inform others.

MRS. SNEERINGER PRESIDES

The meeting Sunday opened with prayer to Our Lady of Good Counsel, led by the host pastor, the Rev. Michael Barrett, who also welcomed those in attendance and invited them to visit the church built in 1845. Mrs. Francis Renaud, president of the hostess parish council, also spoke. Mrs. James G. Sneeringer, Gettysburg, who is deanery president, was in charge and accepted reports from Mrs. Loyola Krepps, McSherrystown, and Mrs. Ralph Keffer Sr., Hanover. Council presidents were reminded to send their contributions for Christmas to the chaplain at Camp Hill and to send cash contributions this year to Paradise School, as individual names have not yet been distributed among the parish councils. It was announced that all affiliation dues have been paid but that some deanery assessments remain to be paid.

REPORTS ON CONVENTION

Checks for the special diocesan activities fund from each parish are due by December 30. Parishes will arrange a Day of Recollection as individual groups this year to replace the annual deanery Day of Recollection and presidents are asked to notify Mrs. Otto Matzelle, Fayetteville R. D., when these spiritual exercises are scheduled.

Mrs. Sneeringer spoke briefly concerning the national convention of the National Council of (Continued on Page 3)

NEW PROGRAM FOR CONCERT

Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra officials today announced a last-minute change in the concert program in the high school auditorium this evening.

Contract restrictions involved in programming forced the orchestra to withdraw some material scheduled for here, Business Manager John Edwards explained.

The new program will open with the Wagner's overture from "Die Meistersinger." Associate Conductor Haig Yaghjian will lead the orchestra in Stravinsky's "Symphony in Three Movements."

Following the intermission, the entire second half of the program will be devoted to a presentation of the Brahms "Fourth Symphony."

Nineteen Gettysburg area clubs participated in the sale of tickets for the concert, with community service projects of the organizations slated to receive the entire proceeds of the ticket sale.

The concert is sponsored by the Columbia Gas of Pennsylvania, Inc., with Donald Kemp of the New Oxford Lions Club and Mrs. F. N. Hewetson, Gettysburg Friends of the Library, as co-chairmen.

Other members of the committee include Mrs. Miles Kleinfelter, Julian N. Estep, Paul L. Roy and Henry M. Scharf.

Catholics Are Pleased With English Mass

The general response from Catholics who attended the first Mass in English in Gettysburg Sunday morning was overwhelmingly in favor of the transition. The congregation participated in the Mass by singing several hymns and responding in English. Approximately half of the Mass was sung or read in English by the officiating priest.

Rev. Fr. Joseph P. Kealy, pastor of St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church, said that he was more than pleased with the response.

"I did not expect such spontaneous reaction at the first service," he said this morning. "Nor did I expect the participation by the congregation to be so enthusiastic and so general. It was most gratifying. It will take several weeks to smooth out a few wrinkles, I am sure, will enjoy the service very much. One parishioner said to me 'I have never enjoyed the Mass as much as I did today.'"

MIXED FEELING

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

"I never knew until today the meaning of prayers I've been using ever since I was a little girl," said a St. Paul, Minn., woman after witnessing the use of English in a Roman Catholic Mass.

A middle-aged San Francisco woman, after going through the same experience, commented wryly: "This new Mass is like doing Shakespeare in modern English."

These were typical of the differing viewpoints expressed by some of the nation's 45 million Roman Catholics after attending Masses Sunday in which English was used for the first time instead of Latin in about half the service.

MOSTLY FAVORABLE

A cross-country spot check brought mostly favorable reaction.

Most of the English is prescribed for use in the people's responses to the chanting of the priests in the 17,500 parish churches spanning America. (Continued on Page 3)

J. E. LEMMON DIES AT 80

Jesse Edward Lemmon, 80, died at 6 o'clock this morning at his home, 114 E. North St., Waynesboro, after having been in ill health for a year and confined to his home for the last eight weeks. He was a Carroll County native but a resident of Waynesboro for the last 49 years.

He was a son of the late George W. and Mary (Halter) Lemmon and had operated a bread route in the Waynesboro area for 28 years. Later he was employed for 17 years by the Landis Company. He retired in 1961. He was a member of the Evangelical Lutheran Church and of the Whetstone Bible Class.

Mr. Lemmon also was a member of the Acacia Lodge No. 586 of the Masons, the Odd Fellows, Encampment and Canton branches of the IOOF, the Waynesboro Motor Club, the Order of Owls of Waynesboro, the MORA Club there and the Tall Cedars of Lebanon.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. L. Virginia (Epley) Lemmon; three children, Herman, at home; Kenneth, Waynesboro; Miss Thelma and Mrs. Allan Ramsey, both at home; five grandchildren and these brothers and sisters: William, Littlestown; David, Pittsburgh; Herbert, Hanover; Grover, Baltimore; Mrs. Elwood Hamer and Mrs. Earl Young, Westminster; Mrs. Allen Epley, Littlestown, and Mrs. Curtis Flohr, Gettysburg.

Funeral services Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Poe Funeral Home in Waynesboro with his pastor, the Rev. Glenn L. Stahl, officiating. Interment in Green Hill Cemetery, Waynesboro. Friends may call at the funeral home Tuesday evening from 4 to 9 o'clock.

BOARD TO MEET

Spacecraft, Locked Onto Its Guiding Star, Canopus, Is Racing Toward Mars On Schedule At 7,000 Miles Per Hour

The Mariner 4 spacecraft, intended to take a close look and send back pictures of the planet Mars, was boosted into space Saturday aboard an Atlas-Agena rocket from Cape Kennedy, Fla. If successful the spacecraft will near Mars next July 14. (AP Wirephoto)

By DIAL TORGERSO

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Spacecraft Mariner 4 finally found its guiding star today, and scientists said it was using the star to speed on toward an appointment with Mars.

Officials at Jet Propulsion Laboratory in Pasadena said that the second radio command sent to the craft today resulted in its finding Canopus — the bright orb it needs to hold it on course through a 7½-month, 325-million-mile voyage.

A first command sent at 1:13 a.m. made the craft lock on an object which data later revealed was not Canopus, scientists reported.

LOCKS ON STAR

The second command was sent at 2:57 a.m., starting the craft rolling over in space, scanning the heavens for Canopus. Three minutes later it locked on a star.

Scientists said the data it then radioed back was analyzed, proving it locked on Canopus and not some other star.

They said two sensors are carried on the craft. When one of them is locked on Canopus, the other should be pointed toward earth. They said information received from the earth sensor indicated that it was indeed pointing toward earth.

FIRST TRY FAILS

At the time Mariner locked on Canopus it was 359,850 miles from earth and was traveling at 7,400 miles an hour, scientists said.

HOSPITAL MAY GET $19,000 FROM ESTATE

The Hanover General Hospital apparently will receive about $19,000 from the estate of Eva Lohr, late of New Oxford R. 2, as a result of an opinion of the Adams County court Saturday.

In its opinion, the court directed the county register of wills to "open the probate of the will of Eva Lohr, deceased, to permit Exhibit 1 to be offered for probate as a codicil thereto."

Exhibit 1 was a sheet of paper in Mrs. Lohr's handwriting found in an envelope containing another sheet of paper which entitled: "My will Feb. 2, 1957." That page was signed by two witnesses, Ruth W. Sachs and John M. Sachs.

DISTRIBUTION PROBLEM

The executor of the will, Raymond Geisler, a brother of the deceased, had entered the page signed by the witnesses for probate as the will. He submitted his account as executor showing $29,311.52 for distribution and at the same time informed the court that he was appending no schedule for distribution, stating: "It cannot be determined as a certainty who should participate in the distribution of the estate."

Geisler filed his account November 8, 1963. Mrs. Lohr died January 12, 1963.

Hanover Hospital then appealed the probate of the will, presenting the sheet of paper listed as "Exhibit 1" in the court's opinion. (Continued On Page 3)

BULLETINS

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y.

(AP)—The Soviet Union today rejected a compromise formula put forward by Secretary-General U Thant in the hope of avoiding a U. S.-Soviet confrontation on U. N. financing.

Word of the Soviet decision came shortly after Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko met Secretary of State Dean Rusk for a luncheon discussion on this and other problems before the U. N. Assembly opening Tuesday.

Thant proposed to the four big powers last week that they agree to postpone all important matters until after the first of the year so that there would be no occasion to question the voting rights of the Soviet Union. The United States and others contend that the Russians cannot vote because of their back debts.

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)

A helicopter-borne assault against the Viet Cong, concentrated 245 miles north of Saigon, resulted today in 34 Communists killed and five captured, the Army reported.

Two Vietnamese ranger companies and a reconnaissance company were dropped into the area by U. S. Marine and Army helicopters several miles from the coast of Quang Nam Province and made contact within 30 minutes.

Plane Crew, Refugees Are Killed In Crash On Sunday At Stanleyville Airport

By ROBIN MANNOCK

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — A chartered Belgian DC4 crashed on the runway of Stanleyville airport Sunday night, killing the crew and all but seven of the refugees it was bringing to safety, reports to Leopoldville said.

A message reaching Leopoldville this morning said the plane "got fire on taking off." It was not clear whether this meant that the plane had been hit by rebel riflesmen who still infest the region around the airport at Stanleyville.

An employee of the charter company, Belgian International Air Services, said the DC4 had a crew of three Belgians. It was not known how many passengers were aboard.

WILL PROBE CRASH

An investigating team was flying to Stanleyville this morning.

Most of the plane's passengers were reported to be Congolese refugees from the former rebel capital.

planes have been unable to land in Stanleyville because of rebel ground fire. Belgians who returned from Stanleyville Sunday night said the region between the airport and the center of the city about two miles away was heavily infiltrated by rebel snipers.

GUARD AIRPORTS

Beyond the airport, the rebels are in almost full control. The airport is guarded by Congolese soldiers who took over when Belgian paratroopers were withdrawn Sunday after rescuing 1,700 foreigners from the rebels.

With the departure of the Belgian paratroopers, fears mounted for the safety of 500 to 1,000 whites still in the rebel-held areas of the northern Congo.

Refugees said the Peking-backed rebels were intent on killing all whites to vent their anger over the paratroop action in Stanleyville and Paulis last week.

Plan Dutch Treat Dinner For GTC

Cooperation between the Washington Convention Bureau and the Gettysburg Travel Council will be discussed Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock at a ladies' night Dutch treat dinner meeting of the local Travel Council in the Lamp Post Tea Room.

Travel Council President William F. Richardson III has urged "a large attendance" at the session, which, he said, "Should help us greatly in promotion of tourist trade." Those planning to attend are to notify the Travel Council office by noon Tuesday.

Kenneth F. Brooks Jr., director of Public Relations for the Convention and Visitors Bureau of the Washington, D. C., Board of Trade will be the speaker. He will outline the organization of the Washington Convention Bureau and discuss possible cooperation between the Gettysburg Travel Council and the Washington board in exchanging ideas, information and brochure distribution.

BIGLERVILLE XMAS LIGHTS GO ON FRIDAY

The Biglerville Business Club today announced plans to turn on that borough's Christmas lights Friday night and for the annual home decorations contest to be held December 22.

Paul F. Osborn, of the committee in charge of the program to "beautify the town at Christmas-time," said letters have been sent by the Biglerville Business Club to all residents of the borough seeking contributions toward the cost of the laurel and colored street lights, estimated at $350, and for the $163 in cash prizes to be awarded in the home decorations contest.

Osborn, who is treasurer of the business club, said today: "There has been a good response to the letters and, if contributions continue to come in at the present rate, receipts will be sufficient to take care of the project."

PRIZES ANNOUNCED

Osborn is sending letters to contributors thanking them for the part they are playing in promoting the Christmas spirit in Biglerville and noting that Biglerville has been praised on several occasions for its street decorations and numerous homes in which outdoor decorations have been placed.

The letter also urges that "each home have some outdoor Christmas decorations even if it is only colored lights around a window or doorway."

Prizes in the home decorations contest will be $35 first, $25 second, $10 third, $5 fourth for overall lighting; $25 first, $15 second, $10 third and $5 fourth for Christmas scenes on porch or in the yard; and $15 first, $10 second, $5 third and $3 fourth for doorways or windows. Three out-of-town judges will tour the town December 22 to select the winners, Osborn said.

J. B. LAUGHMAN DIES SATURDAY

Jacob Blaine Laughman, 76, who had lived with a son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Howard L. Laughman, New Oxford R. 1, died Saturday night at 9:29 in the Warner Hospital.

A son of the late Daniel and Matilda (Scholl) Laughman, he was a member of the Mummert's Meeting House Church of the Brethren. His wife, the former Elizabeth Katie Laughman, died in 1931.

Surviving are six children: Mrs. Dorothy Miller, Silver Run, Md.; Daniel Louis Laughman, Hanover; Howard L. Laughman, with whom he had resided; Blaine Jacob Laughman, Newark, Ohio; Oscar N. Laughman, Hanover R. 5 and Mrs. Elinore Bankert, Hanover R. 5.

Also surviving are 32 grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. Maggie Brown, Hanover R. 3.

Funeral services Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Wetzel Funeral Home, Hanover, with Rev. David Lehigh presiding. Interment in the Mummert's Meeting House Cemetery. Friends may call this evening at the funeral home in Hanover.

CALL PARENTS MEETING

All parents in York Springs have been invited to attend a meeting in the York Springs library Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock to discuss the proposed Youth Center for that area. Parents have been urged to "make a special effort" to attend the session.

ONE INJURED IN SERIES OF AUTO CRASHES

Only one person was reported injured in four auto accidents investigated by state police over the weekend.

Felipe Garcia, 40, Aspers R. 1, suffered a laceration of the face when a car in which he was a passenger upset Saturday night at 10:45 o'clock in front of the county jail. State police said Garcia was an occupant of a car driven by Jubie McGee, 25, Fort Valley, Ga., when McGee, going south on the Gettysburg Biglerville Rd., lost control of his car and it ran off the road and upset. Damage was estimated at $350.

Damage totaled $325 Sunday afternoon at 3:30 when two cars collided at the intersection of a legislative route and the Hanover-Littlestown Rd., a mile west of Littlestown. Police said Richard Aleck Anderson, 18, Littlestown R. 2, was driving south on the legislative route and entered the Hanover-Littlestown Rd., colliding with an eastbound car operated by James Russell Fogle, 73, Middletown. Damage was estimated at $175 to the Anderson car and $150 to the Fogle vehicle.

$1,400 ACCIDENT

A total of $50 damage was reported when two cars collided Sunday evening at 7:40 o'clock at the Heidlersburg intersection. State police said R. Caroline Bucher, 56, of Aspers, was driving south seeking to make a left turn off Route 15 when a car following her vehicle, operated by James M. Bollinger, 41, New Windsor, Md., struck the rear of the slowing auto. Damage was estimated at $25 to each car.

Damage exceeded $1,400 and Abbottstown and part of New Oxford were without electric power for 45 minutes Saturday morning when a tractor-trailer and car collided, and the truck struck utility poles.

Police said Susan MacAvoy, 17, McKnightstown, was driving south on the Hanover-Carlisle Pike, two miles north of Hanover at 8:30 Saturday morning.

HIT UTILITY POLE

As Miss MacAvoy slowed to make a left turn, a tractor-trailer going south, operated by Allen H. Jacoby, 31, Dallastown, clipped the rear of the MacAvoy car, then veered off the highway, crossed over two lawns and struck Metropolitan Edison and United Telephone poles.

Damage to the tractor-trailer, owned by Hall's Motor Transit, Sunbury, was estimated at $600. Damage to the MacAvoy car was listed at $100. Damage to the Metropolitan Edison pole and transformer was estimated at $300. Damage to wires and pole of the United Telephone Co. was listed at $100.

Police said damage to shrubbery, plants, lawn at the properties of Royce Emerson and Melvon Nace was estimated at $13 and $25, respectively.

Miss Emma Forrest, Littlestown, Dies

Miss Emma L. Forrest, 93, 121 N. Queen St., Littlestown, one of Littlestown's oldest residents, died Sunday night at 5:15 in the Warner Hospital where she had been a patient for four weeks.

A daughter of the late Hamilton and Louisa (Kitzmiller) Forrest, she was born near Littlestown and resided all of her life in the Littlestown area. She was a member of Centenary Methodist Church, Littlestown.

The last member of her immediate family, she is survived only by nieces and nephews.

Funeral services Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the Little Funeral Home, Littlestown, with the Rev. William R. Jones officiating. Interment in Mt. Carmel Cemetery. Friends may call Tuesday evening after 7 at the funeral home in Littlestown. The deceased had requested that in lieu of other memorials, contributions be made to the missions of the Methodist Church.

Highway Dept. HAS PLANS FOR RT. 15 TO MD.

Route 15 will eventually be an expressway from Harrisburg to the Maryland line, according to news reports from Harrisburg.

Saturday the state Highways Department announced a $43,300 engineering agreement with Berger Associates, Harrisburg consultants, for preliminary plans on "full control access" of Route 15 from the Shiremanstown Rd. interchange to a point north of Dillsburg.

The state also noted that an engineering agreement is underway at present for the portion of the road from York Springs to Shriver's Corners, a distance of 12 miles, and the only portion of the road from Harrisburg to the Maryland line which has not been improved. The $3,000,000 15-mile "Gettysburg bypass" from Shriver's Corner to Maryland line was completed in 1963. Maryland is now engaged in bypassing Emmitsburg as part of the modernization of the road.

The contract with Berger Associates was described as part of the plan to "make Route 15 an expressway."

The Harrisburg concern is to complete within nine months plans which will be carried out during the next three years to eliminate 22 existing side road crossings of Route 15 from Shiremanstown Rd. interchange, nine miles south to near Dillsburg.

Western Penna. Gets White Blanket

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Light snow blanketed parts of Western Pennsylvania today, creating hazardous driving conditions.

The snowfall ranged from a half inch to about an inch. Some roads had ice in spots. No snow fell in the eastern half of the state, but the forecast called for snow there later in the day.

Early morning flurries here were followed at mid-morning by several hours of steady snow but until early afternoon there was no measurable accumulation although the mercury stayed near the freezing point throughout the day. Clearing and colder is the forecast for tonight.

Weather

Five-Day Forecasts for Tues. Dec. 1, through Sat. Dec. 5:

Western Pennsylvania—Temperatures will average 10 to 15 degrees below normal. Unseasonably cold weather will prevail through most of the period except for a brief moderating trend about mid-week. Precipitation may total about one-quarter inch melted as showers or snow flurries in mid-period.

Middle Atlantic States—Temperatures will average three to five degrees below normal. Colder at the beginning and end of the period, with some moderating about Thursday. Some rain about Thursday may total less than one-half inch.

PUSHING FOR INVESTIGATION ON HIGHWAYS

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania Democrats apparently are bent on having the legislature investigate the operation of the State Highways Department under the Republican Scranton administration.

Democratic State Chairman Otis B. Morse said over the weekend he would ask House Democrats when they reorganize to plan on beginning the investigation after the 1965 session opens in January.

The Democrats gained control of the chamber in the Nov. 3 elections.

Morse based his probe call on the announcement that Park H. Martin, highways secretary during the preceding Lawrence administration, has been hired as a special consultant by the Scranton administration.

Martin's recall, said Morse, "is a strong indicator that some one in the upper echelons of the political power structure was forced to press the panic button to halt the collapse of Pennsylvania's complex highway financing, planning and building schedule."

Pick Up Juvenile In Burglary Case

Borough Police Sergeant Daniel Miller will file a juvenile petition in the county court against a youth who allegedly broke into the Kuhn Amoco service station, 525 York St.

According to the call sheet, the local officers were notified at 2:30 Sunday morning that someone had broken into the service station. Police checked and found some pennies had been stolen and a vending machine broken into. At 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon Sgt. Miller reported that a youth had been apprehended in the case and that he will be taken into juvenile court.

Borough police Sunday afternoon at 1:15 received a call from Richard Hershey, a college student, at the Sigma Nu fraternity, W. Broadway, that someone had broken into the building. Investigation disclosed someone had pried open a rear door to obtain entrance but it was not immediately determined whether anything was missing.

Young Man Hurt In Auto Accident

Robert MacArthur Reese, 22, New Oxford R. 2, was injured this morning at 9:30 two miles southwest of New Oxford on a legislative route when he lost control of his vehicle and it struck a utility pole.

State police said Reese was admitted to the Hanover Hospital for X-rays to determine the extent of his injuries. His car was demolished. The officers listed its damage at $800.

According to police Reese was going south when he came over the crest of a hill and saw another car pulling out into the highway before him. He braked, lost control of his vehicle, and it left the highway and broke off a utility pole. Damage to the pole was estimated at $150.

Two Inmates Saw Way To Freedom

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Two prisoners are still at large today, but another is back behind bars after an escape from the city's new Detention Center.

Police said the three escaped by hacking through bars and climbing fences.

Caught a few hours after the escape early Sunday was Paul Stanley, 30, of Philadelphia, who had stolen a truck, police said. Stanley was being held on $5,000 bail on charges of prison break and auto theft. He had been awaiting trial on charges of carrying concealed weapons and violating the firearms act. Still at large were Joseph Smith, 24, of Bellmawr, N.J., and Robert Hyers, 25, of Philadelphia. Both were awaiting trial on burglary charge.

4,700,000 Veterans To Get Dividends

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House says some 4.75 million veterans will start receiving their $224.5 million in GI insurance dividends by the first of the year.

Faster methods and equipment have allowed speedier payments of dividends which, until recent years, were paid on the anniversary date of individual policies.

About $210 million will be paid to World War II veterans, the remaining $14.5 million to veterans of World War I. Policies of Korean war veterans do not provide regular annual dividends.

In addition to Mrs. Lauer she is survived by three grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. Charles Little, Hanover.

Widow Decides To Make Court Fight

The Adams County court Saturday set December 14 at 10 a.m. as the time when heirs of the estate of W. Benton Fidler, late of Menallen Twp., should show cause why Addie E. Fidler, Seat Pleasant, Md., should not be permitted to change a prior declaration and be permitted to take against the will.

Addie Fidler was the wife of W. Benton Fidler, who died June 14, 1964. His will, for which Alfred J. H. Fidler, Bendersville, a son, is executor, gives the estate to Mr. Fidler's three children, provides nothing for Addie Fidler, who was his second wife. Mrs. Fidler alleged that when she signed the original papers to accept the will she had been presented with the papers a week after her husband's death and was still in grief and shock and did not know what she was signing. She asks permission to take against the will under state laws pertaining to widow's inheritances.

The court also Saturday discharged the Gettysburg National Bank as guardian of the estate of Joseph R. Utz since Utz is now

NEW CHURCH IS BLESSED BY BISHOP LEECH

Approximately 600 persons attended the dedication Mass at the new St. Rita's Catholic Church, Blue Ridge Summit, Sunday afternoon. Bishop George L. Leech, Harrisburg, blessed the new edifice and praised the congregation for their "patience and dedication" in building the $130,000 structure.

The congregation had used the former Redmen's Hall for 44 years.

The procession of more than 20 priests from Adams and Franklin Counties and Mt. St. Mary's Seminary, Emmitsburg, was led by Rev. Daniel Mahoney, pastor, and Rev. Martin Brown, St. Andrew's parish, Waynesboro. Rev. James Delaney, Mt. St. Mary's, welcomed Bishop Leech, who was assisted by Rev. James LaCross, diocese secretary.

Bishop Leech explained the English Mass and described the work of the Vatican Council, from which he recently returned.

The new church, which still lacks statues and final completion, will be dedicated in early spring.

A walnut altar carved by the late Philip Gergen and Col. Robert Barrett, Charnian, was removed from the old church and placed in the new structure with a life-size Tyrolean walnut carved crucifix. Rev. Gergen was pastor of St. Rita's Church prior to his transfer to Immaculate Conception Church, New Oxford, where he was serving at the time of his death. Col. Barrett was an officer at Ft. Ritchie prior to his retirement.

Among the guests Sunday afternoon were officers from Ft. Ritchie, which is served by St. Rita's Church and many summer residents who returned for the special Mass.

INDIAN'S CAR IN ACCIDENTS

State police of the Chambersburg station are trying to identify a motorist who abandoned a wrecked car on Chambersburg's outskirts after it was involved in a series of accidents along the Chesetown Rd., Franklin County, late Friday night.

The abandoned car was registered in the name of Chief Splitcloud, operator of the Indian Village along Route 30 on the east slope of Newman's Hill. Police said they are satisfied Chief Splitcloud was not the operator of the car at the time of the accident.

The car, a 1957 model Chevrolet, was found by police early Saturday morning on a parking lot. Valued at $450, the car was demolished, police reported.

Police said it was the same car which left the scene after being involved in a series of accidents at 10:20 p.m. along the Chesetown road, a mile and a half northwest of town. The west-bound car, according to the police report, went off the right side of the road and sideswiped a tree on the Richard A. Reese property. Bouncing off the tree, the car next bowled over a mailbox at the Reese property, crossed the highway and went off the left side into a field.

The driver, according to reports given police, managed to drive the car back onto the roadway and left the scene.

STOCKS DECLINE

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market decline deepened in active trading early this afternoon. The list was dotted with sharp losses.

The tobacco alone bucked the trend. They were strong after a favorable Florida court decision in a cancer-smoking case. Liggett & Myers and Reynolds gained a point or so with American Tobacco and Lorillard up more than half a point.

The steels were weak with Lukens off nearly 2 points, Bethlehem down nearly a point and U.S. Steel a loser of half a point.

Many are the treasures . . . in this world of ours . . . to list them all would take a line . . . but to my mind none can compare . . . to the gift my mother gave . . . I will always cherish it . . . and take it to my grave . . . she gave me pure unselfish love . . . a kind so seldom found . . . for through it I find fervent faith . . . and strength to stand my ground . . . my mother's love embraces all . . . that's good and so worthwhile . . . it has a magic power that . . . causes my heart to smile . . . thanks be to God for mother's love . . . without it life would be . . . a wilderness of torment . . . a dark and stormy sea.

71 COUNTIES RECEIVED CARE

Seventy-one Adams Counties received $8,225 in October under the state's liberalized medical care for the aged program, Sen. D. Elmer Hawbaker said today. An additional 45 aged countians receiving nursing care in the county home.

Since the start of the current fiscal year last July 1, Hawbaker said, $13,506 has been spent for the treatment of ill senior citizens in Adams County.

Under the new program, an aged couple who are not on public assistance may have an income of up to $3,400 per year, plus assets of the same amount exclusive of their home, household furniture, automobile and $500 cash value insurance and still be eligible for medical care.

The limit for single persons is $2,500, but persons with income and/or assets above these amounts may still receive partial benefits upon application to the County Board of Assistance which administers the law locally.

Cost of Living Edges Up Again

WASHINGTON (AP)—The cost of living edged up one-tenth of one per cent in October, the Labor Department said today. Prices increased all along the line except for food, gasoline and household appliances.

The consumer price index, announced by the department's Bureau of Labor Statistics, reached 108.5 per cent of its 1957-1959 average. This was 1.2 per cent above October 1963. Arnold Chase, assistant commissioner of the bureau, said the increase was "within the range that the index has moved in recent years. It shows no sign of the inflation which some people have been talking about."

POSTS BAIL FOR COURT

Charged with driving a motor vehicle without an operator's license, Kenneth J. Leese, 18, New Oxford R. 2, posted $500 bail for his appearance in York County court after he was taken before Justice of the Peace William Y. Naill Jr., Hanover, Friday. Hanover police filed the charge.

cluding three American missionaries. Many were slaughtered only minutes before the Belgians arrived.

At least 500 and possibly as many as 1,000 whites are still in rebel areas. A group of several hundred is at Bunia in the north. Many missionaries and plantation managers are scattered singly in isolated communities.

Diplomatic sources in Leopoldville said the Belgian troops were supposed to make one more air drop but it was called off. The sources could not say why. However, the Belgian government had said at the outset it did not expect the operation to last longer than about three days.

BURY AMERICAN

One of the rebels' victims, American medical missionary Paul Carlson, has been buried beside the church he served in the Congo, his friends reported.

About 300 whites and 1,000 Congolese attended the funeral Saturday at the Church of Christ in Karawa village, in Loubangu Province. His widow and two children were present. They are to leave for the United States within a few days.

HOSPITAL MAY

The paper headed: "My Will Feb. 2, 1957," stated: "After my death make sale and dispose of everything and each get the amount after all expenses are paid."

Church $1,000 put in trust.

"Charles, $1,000 dollars; Earl, $1,000 dollars; Myrna, $1,000 dollars; Paul, $1,000 put in bank to help buried him. New Oxford Fire Company, $200. St. Luke's Church, $1,000 put in trust fund. Loyseville Orphan Home, $500. Raymond, $300 each. Cleason Stoner, $500. Doris Pressel, $50 to bring out my groceries. Raymond to settled up and get $2,000 if he looked after me and took care of me. $500 put in the bank for to buy flowers to put on our graves and on mother and fathers grave Raymond to look after it and take care of it."

Exhibit 1 covered about one-third of one side of a sheet of paper and was signed at the bottom "Eva Lohr." It contained no heading or date and provided "Elmer Krenger to get George shaving mug. Raymond to get George and my pictures. And what left to go to Hanover Hospital."

The two pages were found in the same envelope, which was unsealed. After an illness, Mrs. Lohr sent her brother to her home to get her will. He found the envelope, marked "My will" and a page which bore the notation: "This is not the one." He put the papers, without reading them, in safe keeping and after Mrs. Lohr's death turned the papers over to Mrs. Dorothy Feeser who later read them to the heirs.

In argument before the court the respondents had offered testimony that Mrs. Lohr was antagonistic to hospitals generally and particularly to the Hanover Hospital where her husband had died. "This was for the purpose of showing lack of testamentary intent," the opinion held, "the respondents contending that it was unlikely that she would leave the residue of her estate to the hospital under these circumstances. However we must determine her intent from what she wrote, not from what she might have written. . . . As we construe the testimony on this point, Mrs. Lohr stated several times when she was sick that she did not want to go to any hospital. . . . She always resisted the idea of being taken to a hospital. . . . We do not construe this testimony as being important. It may readily be construed to mean she preferred to be at her own home . . . rather than in an institution."

Gettysburg firemen were summoned at 7:52 Saturday evening to the seminary dormitory on W. Middle St. The call was listed on the report sheet as a false alarm.

Girl Scout News

Those girls of Junior Girl Scout Troop 968 led by Mrs. Donald R. White, who are interested in working on their Hospitality badges, led by Mrs. Donald Uber, and the Dabbler badge led by Mrs. Richard Epley are to meet Wednesday at 3:45 o'clock at the Christ Lutheran parish house.

The troop will have a regular meeting Thursday at the Presbyterian Church where they will be hostesses to Troop 958, led by Mrs. Herman Fransch. The court of honor will meet Wednesday at the Presbyterian Church to prepare for the 3:45 meeting.

Catholic Women, which she attended as deanery delegate in Washington, D. C., early this month. Both she and Mrs. Edwin J. Killalea, past deanery president, attended all of the sessions. A delegation also attended the closing sessions and banquet, including Mrs. Loyola Krepps, Mrs. Ralph Keffer, Mrs. John Hemler, Mrs. Bernard Selby and the Rev. Fr. Gribbon, St. Joseph's parish, Hanover. The convention theme was "Vatican Council And You."

Mrs. Sneeringer will be available to give a complete convention report in all of the parish councils to which she is invited. The president thanked the women of the deanery who participated in the diocesan Girl Scout get-together and in the teachers' institute.

It was announced that the diocesan convention is set tentatively for April 26 and the diocesan board is requesting suggestions for the program. It has been decided that there will be only one report a year instead of two by the committee chairmen, about June 1. The president's annual reports will be at the call of the diocesan president in time for the convention.

NEED LAYETTES

Mrs. Jack Shatzer, Chambersburg, spoke concerning retreats and their parish system of financing retreats in the form of a club. Names of capable women in the various communities to be representatives for Catholic Charities at local welfare meetings are being sought by diocesan director Father Bridy. It was suggested that Propagation of the Faith memberships in the parishes which have not been renewed receive a personal visit from a parish council member in an effort to obtain the renewal under the world responsibility program of the council.

Mrs. Killalea, deanery library and literature chairman, announced that any parish council which would like to borrow books from the St. Francis Xavier Library should see her about an arrangement to do so. A large number of books is available there.

It was noted that layettes are needed for the Catholic Charities office in Gettysburg. Some of the councils are holding baby showers and contributing the gifts received to Sister John Frances who is in charge of the Gettysburg office. Mrs. Sneeringer advised the parish presidents that Miss Frances Poist, Hanover, has a program of World's Fair slides that she will show at the invitation of the parishes. Names were asked of couples who would be willing to serve as chaperones at dances at Delone Catholic High School and these may be given to Mrs. David Klunk or Mrs. Marilyn Weaver, both of McSherrytown.

Closing prayers for vocations were led by Father Wildeman before the flower-bedecked shrine in honor of the Blessed Mother in the meeting room. Light refreshments were served by the hostess council.

Spacecraft

Twice in the first day's search it fixed on stars it thought were Canopus. Each time it had hitched itself onto the wrong star.

Mariner needs the fix to keep it flying through space without tumbling into positions where its radio equipment won't function properly.

It also needs the fix on Canopus for a crucial midcourse maneuver.

TO MAKE FLY-BY

When Mariner 4 was rocketed into orbit Saturday from Cape Kennedy, Fla., it was aimed on a course which would take it on a 7½-month, 325-million-mile journey to within perhaps 150,000 miles of Mars.

For Mariner's key assignment—taking television pictures to unravel some of the red-planet's many secrets—the spacecraft must make a fly-by at 8,000 to 10,000 miles.

Scientists who developed the craft planned to fire a rocket aboard the ship from 5 to 10 days after launch to put it into the refined course for the 10,000-mile near-miss.

PUSHES CRAFT

Before the rocket can be fired, scientists must be sure which way Mariner is pointed. With the bottom of the craft firmly fixed on Canopus, they will know which way the rocket will push the craft.

This position also will keep Mariner's important long-range directional radio antenna pointed toward tracking stations like the giant antennae at JPL's Goldstone tracking station north of Pasadena.

Catholics Are

The reforms were authorized by the Vatican's Ecumenical Council last Dec. 4.

"It's a terrific social act," said the Rev. Luke O'Connell of St. Anthony's Shrine, Boston. "The people are now able to see . . . what was hidden before."

VERY MEANINGFUL

The St. Paul woman, Helen Conrad, found the new Mass "very meaningful."

The San Francisco woman, who declined to give her name, preferred the full Latin usage, saying, "I'm a converted Catholic and we feel strongly about the old things."

The changes—including in many churches the optional practice of having the priest face his congregation instead of having his back to them—marked in large measure the end of an era that began 400 years ago. It was then that the Council of Trent established basic norms for the Latin Mass that became outdated Sunday.

NO MUMBO — JUMBO

"With the introduction of the vernacular," said the Rev. Ralph Gorman, editor of the Catholic Magazine, the Sign, "the people can participate intelligently . . . instead of murmuring a mumbo-jumbo of Latin, as incomprehensible to them as Hindustani."

A New York City parishioner speculated it will "cut down on daydreaming." Mary Gibbons, who attends St. Catherine of Siena Church, added somewhat sternly, "It's going to force Catholics to do what they have been supposed to do all along—follow and participate in the Mass."

LIGHTNER SERVICES HELD

Funeral services for Maurice E. Lightner, 75, Gettysburg R. 3, a sawmill operator in the Mt. Hope area, who died Thursday morning in the Warner Hospital, were held Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the Wilson Funeral Home in Fairfield with the Rev. Alfred Gotwalt officiating. Interment was made in the Fairfield Union Cemetery. The pallbearers were Frank Daywalt, Glenn Nintle, James and Robert Mickleby, Ray Shindler and Luther Kepner.

Feature York In Venture Magazine

NEW YORK — The history and charm of the city of York are described from a hometown point of view in an article by Jacob Hay in the December issue of Venture Magazine.

Hay, who grew up in York, says, "The pleasant aspect of all is that York doesn't jam itself down your throat, but lets you make the personal private discoveries for yourself."

"No glaring signs direct you to the Central Market, for example, but there you will find the good Mennonite ladies, in their trim little prayer bonnets, standing market over piles of neatly dressed chickens garnished with sprigs of dewy parsley," he writes.

The article also describes Continental Square, the Roosevelt Tavern, the Historical Society of York County, the Hanover Shoe Farms and the Hofbrauhaus in Abbotstown, among other landmarks.

Venture is the hard-cover travel magazine published by Cowles Magazines, Publishers of Look.

Terry Downes To Fight Pastrano

MANCHESTER, England (AP)—Britain's Terry Downes, a slugger, takes on world light-heavyweight champion Willie Pastrano, a boxer, for the title over 15 rounds tonight. The fight is scheduled to start about 4 p.m., EST.

Pastrano, 29, from Miami, is favored, but the classy American admits, "Downes is rough and tough. He keeps coming. It'll make for an interesting fight."

Downes, six months younger and former middleweight champion from London, said, "I don't pretend to be a better fighter than I may just catch him when he's cracking."

Pastrano has won 62 fights, drawn 8 and lost 11. Downes has 34 victories and 8 losses and is ranked ninth by Ring Magazine.

Traffic accidents on the nation's streets and highways killed a record 550 persons during the four-day Thanksgiving Holiday.

The figure topped last year's Thanksgiving mark of 543 deaths which had been the record since annual counts for the holiday began in 1958.

Driving on most of the country's roads and highways was endangered as rain and snow pelted the northern half of the continent Sunday. Hazardous driving warnings were issued for many states by the Weather Bureau.

The pace of fatal accidents increased somewhat in the waning hours of the holiday, as weary motorists hurried to return to their homes. The death toll was boosted by many multiple death accidents, including one in which eight persons were killed Thanksgiving Day in South Carolina.

ABOVE NORMAL RATE

The traffic death total since 6 p.m. local time Wednesday was 535. The 102-hour holiday ended at midnight Sunday.

The National Safety Council statistics show the average daily traffic death total was 126 in the first nine months of 1964.

The council keeps records of the number of deaths on certain weekend holidays, but does not do so for the Thanksgiving weekend because, it says, the holiday period does not involve much extra driving.

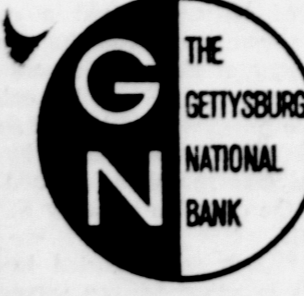

For a comparative purpose, The Associated Press surveyed the number of deaths for a non-holiday weekend of 102 hours, Nov. 11 to Nov. 15. A total of 468 traffic fatalities were reported.

The Associated Press began keeping records of deaths during the Thanksgiving holidays in 1958. Since then the lowest number of deaths reported was 442 in 1960.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

Thanksgiving Day was generally observed by our citizens. There was a cessation of all business and our streets had a sabbath-like appearance. There were religious services in the Presbyterian Church and Christ Church in the morning and prayer meeting in the evening in the United Presbyterian Church. The day was observed in all the cities and villages of the country.

Mr. Peter Rodgers, who was shot in the bowels by Henry Turrell, on Saturday week, is, we are glad to be able to state, in a fair way to recover. Turrell, on Monday night tried to break jail and had succeeded in raising a small part of the floor in his cell but Sheriff Rebert caught him in the act and placed him under greater security.

Congress will assemble on Monday next and there is no doubt a quorum will be present in both Houses. If so, it is highly probable the Message of the President will be sent in on that day. It will be looked for with great interest — from the fact that it will foreshadow the future policy of the government. Our respected townsman, Hon. Edward McPherson, the very efficient Clerk of the House of Representatives, left here yesterday afternoon to enter upon his duties at Washington.

Army Vote: The Return Judges met at the Courthouse on Friday last and counted the Army vote of the County. To be consistent, they threw out seven or eight returns. Those that were counted gave Mr. Lincoln 120 majority. Those that were thrown out by the Judges in their wisdom would have given Mr. Lincoln 66 more — reducing McClellan's majority in the county, on the whole vote, to 338.

That remarkable old negro woman, Sojourner-Truth, called on President Lincoln recently and told him he was the only President who had done anything for her people. Mr. Lincoln replied: "And the only one who ever had such opportunity. Had our friends in the South behaved themselves I could have done nothing whatever."

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Union Thanksgiving services will be held in the Presbyterian Church of this place on next Thursday. Thanksgiving Day, at 10 o'clock A.M. Rev. J. K. Demarest, D.D., will deliver the sermon.

There will be a meeting of the Building Committee of the College this evening to examine the plans for remodeling Linnane Hall for gymnasium purposes and the conversion of the gymnasium into a laboratory.

John F. Sientz has leased the Whitney farm, better known as the McPherson farm, on the Chambersburg turnpike and will move on it in the spring. Mr. Sientz lived on this farm during the battle and for several years thereafter when he moved to Quarryville, Lancaster county.

Col. John B. Bachelder spent several days here last week, inspecting and examining the rebel lines. He will push this project to open up this whole line, before the incoming Congress, with fair prospects of success. The several lines of the rebel army make a total

Just Folks

GARDEN IN LATE NOVEMBER

Where was lovely green in May, All is brown and frosty gray. Seed and bulb are now entombed Where the scarlet tulip bloomed. Where the June rose caught the sun And the ramblers used to run, Where was beauty to behold, All is barren, bleak and cold.

Where the song bird held the bough, Twittering sparrows gather now. Little more is heard today. Than the harsh cry of the jay, And the earth itself is hard Like an old face weather-scarred. All that glorifies the scene Is the stalwart evergreen.

Gone the color, stilled the song, Gone the multitudinous throng, Ant and insect, beetle, bee, Which all summer long we see. 'Neath the winter's frosty breath They have gone to sleep or death. Now all things of earth below Wait the covering of the snow.

Today's Talk

FREEDOM

It is difficult for one to understand why any person who lives in a free country can advocate a form of government that is the distinct opposite of all that a free government stands for. One has no quarrel with communism if it stays where it was born. If they like it there, it's theirs. Let them enjoy it, if they can. We like freedom!

There is nothing in this world so precious to a human being as to be born in a free land, where one can think as one pleases, work where one wishes, and worship in one's own way. How can any individual dare to want to sabotage so great a heritage? Democracy has plenty of faults. There is no perfect form of government — but that one is best that gives the freest chance for the individual to develop all of his God-given faculties, and to make him a happy, self-respecting, liberty loving human being.

One should never fail to vote when election days come around, and feel proud to do so. To vote is a privilege.

This western continent has been the dream and refuge of millions of human beings who have contributed to its greatness. We will the termites that eat into the foundations of our homes. In like manner we should sweep from our shores these domestic and foreign termites who are eating into the very foundations of our way of life, our form of government, and our precious freedom. Why harbor them? Why not sentence and ship them to the lands they say they love? There are plenty who hunger for freedom and who are crying to take their place.

Freedom is universal in Nature. There are no enslaved there. And never was it meant that a single human being should not know its priceless benefits. Why have Canada and the United States lived in peace and happy friendship for over a hundred years? Because they have been friends, and have respected each other's rights! Both are lovers of freedom. In the words of Emerson:

"For what avail the plough or sail, Or land or life, if freedom fail?"

Cashtown Items: Our constable a few days ago arrested a Jew peddler appraised his pack and on Saturday sold the same at auction to pay the fine and costs for violation of the law regarding peddlers, which amounted to $65. The sale amounted to $50.80. This course was just right, as peddlers have become a nuisance to this community, carrying the proceeds of their sales out of the neighborhood and after accumulating enough money, taking it out of the country. As a rule, not one of them is a citizen of the U.S. — It seems that some of the hunters of McKnightstown are in for reversing the order of things and are shooting rabbits with short ears and long tails, a species that are new in this country, but they ought to know if they are right.

The altar flowers were presented by the Ladies' Aid Society.

PICK RESSLER ON 2ND ROUND

NEW YORK (AP) — Glenn Ressler, Penn State's center-linebacker, is regarded by the pros as the most promising football prospect among this year's crop of Pennsylvania college players.

Ressler was picked in the second round by the Denver Broncos of the American Football League and in the third round by the Baltimore Colts of the National Football League as the pros held their annual player draft here over the weekend.

Next to Ressler, the pro liked the play of Pitt linebacker Marty Schottenheimer, Villanova linebacker Mike Strofolino and Villanova tackle Al Atkinson.

Schottenheimer was picked by Baltimore in the fourth round of the NFL draft and by Buffalo in the sixth round of the AFL selections.

The NFL Los Angeles Rams chose Strofolino in the fourth round and Denver of the AFL picked him in the 13th round. Atkinson was named by Buffalo of the AFL in the third round and by Baltimore of the NFL in the sixth round.

End Bill Howley of Pitt was named by the Pittsburgh Steelers of the NFL as their eighth pick. San Diego of the AFL picked Villanova guard Bill Quigley in the 13th round.

CANADIENS DRUB RANGERS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Montreal's Henri Richard made his third appearance in the 1½-month-old National Hockey League season and it was enough to convince New York Rangers' Coach Red Sullivan that the Canadiens are heading for a second straight NHL pennant.

"They should win it again," Sullivan said Sunday night after the Canadiens had drubbed the Rangers 5-2, jumping past them into third place in the close league race.

The Pocket Rocket, almost recovered from a severe groin injury that limited him to one part-time effort last weekend, practically hustled the tired Rangers out of Madison Square Garden in addition to setting up Dave Balon's deciding goal. Henri scored his 20th career goal Saturday night in Montreal's 2-1 squeaker over the improving Boston Bruins. The Bruins rebounded Sunday, coming from behind to nip the Chicago Black Hawks 4-3 and the league-leading Red Wings and second-place Toronto Maple Leafs played to a 1-1 tie in Sunday's other game.

MYERS RITES TODAY

Funeral services for Mrs. Clara B. M. (Rider) Myers, 83, Silver Run, widow of Harry L. Myers, who died Friday in the Warner Hospital, were conducted this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from Little's Funeral Home, Littlestown. The Rev. Christopher J. Noss, pastor of St. Mary's United Church of Christ, Silver Run, officiated. Interment was in Mt. Carmel Cemetery, Littlestown. Pallbearers were William Oyler, Cyril Groff, Paul Frock, Charles Leppo, Alvin Dutterer and Sterling Dutterer.

BOXER IS SHOT BY POLICEMAN DURING ARREST

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Boxer Cleveland Williams lay in a hospital today critically wounded by a bullet, his hopes for a crack at the heavyweight title in January shattered.

The Big Cat, as he was known in the fight world, underwent nearly six hours of surgery Sunday morning for the removal of a .357 magnum bullet fired into his lower abdomen by a state highway patrolman.

Williams, the world's No. 2 heavyweight challenger, was shot by Patrolman Dale E. Witten, 36, who said Williams struck him and tried to flee after the fighter was arrested on suspicion of driving while intoxicated.

FILE CHARGES

Officers later filed charges of driving while intoxicated and aggravated assault on a peace officer against Williams.

Hugh Benbow, Williams' manager and co-owner of his contract, said the injury would cost at least $1 million in lost earnings.

And Benbow, who described Witten's account of the incident as inconsistent with Williams' reputation of being friendly with all police officers, said he would demand a full investigation.

TITLE CONTENDER

The surgery on 31-year-old Williams involved the removal of a small section of intestine. A surgeon said, however, the wound would not end Williams' boxing career.

Williams was to fight for the World Boxing Association's world heavyweight title in January, probably in Houston. The arrangements were to be made here Wednesday.

A highway patrol report of the struggle said Williams, after he had been shot, continued to struggle with Witten for the pistol and attempted to point at the officer's head.

The report said Witten had stopped Williams for possible drunken driving. It said there were two women in the car, along with Williams and Warner Nedd Jr., 33, who was also charged with drunkenness. The report said the two women were sober.

Art Wall Wins Mexican Tourney

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Art Wall Jr., of Pocono Manor, Pa., sidelined for five months with a pinched nerve in his back, celebrated a belated birthday today after capturing the Mexican National Golf Championship.

The lanky golfer won the tournament by five strokes over Roberto de Vicenzo of Argentina. Wall posted a three-under-par 69 on the final round Sunday for a record 276 score.

The former Masters champion said "It was a sort of birthday present, too. My 41st birthday was Nov. 25, the day before the four-day tournament started."

Don January of Dallas wound up third with a 282.

Lakers Pull Out To Biggest Lead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Los Angeles Lakers, using the formidable formula of a big burst and Jerry West, have pulled out to their biggest lead of the National Basketball Association season, three full games over the rest of the pack in the Western Division.

West dropped in 14 of his 30 points in a 39-point Los Angeles burst in the third period Sunday that staked the Lakers to an easy 126-110 triumph over Baltimore.

That decision, along with the Philadelphia 76ers' 97-94 victory over St. Louis, dropped the Hawks three games off the pace. Cincinnati romped over New York 105-95 in the only other game played.

PHILLIES GET DICK STUART FOR BENNETT

HOUSTON (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies, getting more punch for their offense at the risk of getting punchier on defense, have acquired first baseman Dick Stuart from the Boston Red Sox for pitcher Dennis Bennett.

"We now have as tough a 1-2-3 punch as any club in the National League," said Philadelphia Manager Gene Mauch.

"We had to build up our pitching staff," said Red Sox General Manager Mike Higgins.

The Phils and Red Sox pulled the first inter-league trade of the year Sunday on the opening day of the winter baseball meetings.

Mauch said Stuart will hit behind Richie Allen and Johnny Callison.

"I'll match those three against any other three in the league," Mauch said.

Bennett, 25, had a 12-14 record and a 3.68 earned-run average last season. His three-year major league record is 30-28.

Five-Man Backfield Is Selected For All-East College Football Squad

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A five man backfield, including Syracuse's Floyd Little and Jim Nance, and two quarterbacks highlights the 1964 Associated Press All East College Football Team.

Columbia's Archie Roberts and 1963 Heisman Trophy winner Roger Staubach of Navy shared the quarterback spot, with Carl Stuchew of Army, also listed as a quarterback but operating more in the role of a tailback, completing the beefed up backfield.

Roberts and Staubach each operated under some difficulty this season, their teams did not play each other, they played no common opponents, few of the AP Regional Board members saw both in action, no one could come up with outstanding reasons for ranking one above the other, so they shared the quarterback positions.

ANCHORS LINE

The offensive line is built around Syracuse center Pat Killorin.

The rest of it is composed of Tom Nissi of Holy Cross and Ray Popp of Pitt at guards, John Simko of Penn State and Jim Freeman of Navy at tackles and Jim Whalen of Boston College and Milt Morin of Massachusetts at ends.

The defense team is composed of ends Bill Cronin of Boston College and Bud Yost of Penn State, tackles Al Atkinson of Villanova, linebackers Glen Ressler of Penn State, Marty Schottenheimer of Pitt and Stas Maliszewski of Princeton, and backs Cosmo Iacavazzi of Princeton, Frank Hershey of Penn State, Charley Brown of Syracuse and Jim McGowan of Boston College.

FIELD GOAL BY NICKERSON IS ARMY'S MARGIN IN BIG VICTORY

By RALPH BERNSTEIN
Associated Press Sports Writer
PHILADELPHIA (AP) —

Barry Nickerson missed his chance Saturday. For the asking he could have owned West Point.

Nickerson, the 19-year-old sophomore from Miami, Fla., did what every Cadet dreams of accomplishing.

He scored the winning points in an Army Navy football game.

And after the 11-8 Army victory was a matter of history, the big brass from Academy Superintendent James Lampert on down, dished out rewards.

EXTRA CHRISTMAS LEAVE

Christmas leave starts 3½ days early, announced Lampert as the Cadet team, some rushing dripping wet from the shower to hear the boss speak, cheered in the dressing room.

Then, all punishment tours on the books as of last Saturday, were suspended. Everyone started with a clean slate today. This was Nickerson's big chance, but all he could think of was:

"I knew it was good the second my foot hit the ball."

FIRST IN 30 YEARS

Kicking the first winning field goal in an Army-Navy game in 30 years was all the reward the 200-pound end wanted. Slade Cutter, in 1934 at Franklin Field here, kicked a field goal out of the rain to give Navy a 3-0 victory.

The score was tied 8-8 with 9:30 to go in the final period when Nickerson, who had missed an earlier conversion attempt, banged home a 20-yard field goal. Navy never caught up.

ENDS NAVY STRING

"As my old basketball coach used to say," Dietzel told newsmen, "this is the bread and butter game."

The Army victory ended a string of five straight Navy successes, and prevented the Midwesterners from evening the 65-year-old series. Army boosted its lead to 31 victories against 29 defeats. There have been five ties. It was Dietzel's first classic win after two defeats.

"What a win," said the Army coach. "No one can say we didn't need this one bad. This is the game we have to live with all winter."

TONY OLIVA IS AL ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

By LEW FERGUSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (AP) — Tony Oliva, the 1964 American League Rookie of the Year, came within an eyelash of returning to his native Cuba a few weeks after he reached this country in 1961.

If he had, he might be swinging at pitches thrown by Fidel Castro instead of being a league batting champion and one of the hottest baseball properties in the United States.

Oliva came to American in the spring of 1961, using his brother's passport to sneak out of Cuba.

WROTE RECORD BOOKS

He went to a Minnesota Twins' tryout camp in Florida, but was not kept by the Twins.

Disheartened and not knowing where to go, he decided he had best go back home to his family in Cuba.

But first the gangling 19-year-old went to Charlotte, N.C., to visit a fellow Cuban. He tried out with the Hornets — then of the Sally League.

The rest is in the record books. Oliva went to Wytheville in the Appalachian Rookie League, where he hit .410 to lead all baseball. In 1962 he had a .350 mark at Charlotte, barely missing the league championship, and in 1963 he hit .304 after a horrible start at Dallas-Fort Worth in the Pacific Coast League.

Oliva led the A. L. in 1964 with a .323 mark, and had 32 home runs and 95 runs batted in.

Named with Oliva was Richie Allen, selected as National League Rookie of the Year.

Allen hit .318 for Philadelphia.

Giant tackle Jim Norton at the University of Washington is a senior with two varsity letters. He is also the Huskies' kicking specialist.

OREGON STATE IS GOING TO ROSE BOWL; TROJANS OUT

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The only winner in the Southern California-Notre Dame game was the Oregon State Beavers, and they weren't even there.

The jubilant Beavers were picked over Southern California and named the West Coast representative in the Rose Bowl Saturday just a few hours after the Trojans had turned in the upset of the year in a brilliant, 20-17 come-from-behind triumph over Notre Dame, the nation's top-ranked college football team.

"One of the rankest injustices ever perpetrated in the field of intercollegiate athletics," stormed Southern California Athletic Director Jess Hill.

The stunning upset, of course, put Notre Dame's No. 1 standing in great jeopardy and — for a couple of hours — it appeared that Southern Cal had made its way into the Rose Bowl. But their victory celebration turned into a gloomy affair when the Pacific Athletic Conference faculty representatives — who had held off voting until after the game — voted Oregon State into the big bowl against Michigan.

Both Oregon State and Southern California had 3-1 conference records. The Beavers were 8-2 over-all. Southern Cal finished 7-3.

"I hope Oregon State does a real fine job," said Southern Cal Coach John McKay. "It is a well-coached team and I hope it justifies the conference decision that they are better than we are."

TRAILED AT HALF

Southern Cal's Craig Fertig was the chief factor in the amazing upset of the Irish, who had won nine straight under new coach Ara Parseghian.

Trailing 17-0 at half, the Trojans got one touchdown in the third period, cut it to 17-13 on a 22-yard Fertig touchdown pass and won it in the fourth quarter with less than two minutes to go on another Fertig touchdown toss.

Georgia stopped Georgia Tech 7-0 and immediately accepted the Sun Bowl bid in another major game on the last full week-end of the college football season.

ARMY BREAKS JINX

Army, meanwhile, finally broke the five-year Navy jinx and edged the Midwesterners 11-8 on Barry Nickerson's 20-yard, fourth-quarter field goal.

In some of the other major action, Tulane surprised Duke 17-0, Florida edged Miami 12-10, Vanderbilt blanked Tennessee 7-0, Boston College beat Holy Cross 10-8, Baylor defeated Rice 27-20, Texas Christian knocked off Southern Methodist 17-6, Cincinnati whipped Houston 20-6, New Mexico edged Kansas State 9-7, Oklahoma took Oklahoma State 21-16 and Arizona crushed Arizona State 30-6.

Pat Fischer climaxed the Cardinals' comeback by racing 49 yards with John Henry Johnson's fumble late in the period.

11th COLT WIN

Baltimore, which clinched the Western title last week, won its 11th straight game, and Lenny Moore tallied a touchdown in his 15th consecutive contest. Moore smashed across from the two after Lou Michaels had recovered John Brodie's fumble on the previous play.

Henry Jordan ran 60 yards with a fumble, and Lionel Alldridge scored from 29 yards out with a loose ball for two Green Bay touchdowns. Bart Starr passed for three others and scored a fourth himself. Dallas never led in the game.

Minnesota built a commanding 17-3 lead in the first half against the Rams. Fran Tarkenton threw touchdown passes of 15 yards to Paul Flatley and 13 yards to Bill Brown while Fred Cox booted a 16-yard field goal.

Washington's Sonny Jurgensen increased his league-leading touchdown pass total to 24 with four against the Giants, two to Bobby Mitchell. Rookie Paul Krause set a league record by intercepting at least one pass in his seventh straight game. He grabbed two New York aeriels.

The Chinese navy has 25 submarines.

Kennedy Stadium Will Be Razed

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—John F. Kennedy Stadium will have to be razed after completion of the new $25 million sports stadium planned for South Philadelphia, City Council President Paul D'Ortona said Saturday.

Kennedy Stadium has a seating capacity of 102,000 and is the home of the annual Army-Navy game. The new stadium will seat for 60,000 for baseball and 75,000 for football and other sports events.

BROWNS, CARDS AND COLTS IN NFL VICTORIES

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Cleveland's scrambling defense has tied Jimmy Brown in the scoring column and has moved the Browns to within one game of playing Baltimore for the National Football League championship.

The defense scored three touchdowns in the first half Sunday, triggering Cleveland to a 38-24 victory over Philadelphia. A Cleveland triumph or a tie against St. Louis next Sunday would give the Browns their first Eastern Conference Crown since 1957.

Brown, the league's leading rusher, needed one touchdown to tie Don Hutson's NFL career record of 105 but failed to get it. That left him with eight for the season, the same number the defense now has tallied.

1st TD QUICKLY

The Browns barely had finished their warmups when they had their first touchdown.

Philadelphia's Tim Brown bobbled the opening kickoff on his 14-yard line, and the ball bounced back into the end zone where Roger Shoals fell on it 18 seconds after the start of the game.

In the second quarter, rookie Sid Williams burst through the Eagle line and blocked Sam Baker's punt at the two. He then fell on the ball in the end zone for Cleveland's second touchdown.

In other games, St. Louis nipped Pittsburgh 21-20, Baltimore defeated San Francisco 14-3, Green Bay walloped Dallas 45-21, Minnesota whipped Los Angeles 34-13 and Washington dumped New York 36-21.

St. Louis, trailing 20-7 in the fourth quarter, halted a 13-game losing streak in Pittsburgh, winning its first game there since 1948.

A crowd of 79,289 was on hand for the final home game of the regular season. The total home attendance for seven games soared to 349,334, a club record. The old record, set last year, was 487,430.

BISONS WIN IN OVERTIME

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

If extra effort pays off, as advertised, the Buffalo Bisons are overdue for a windfall.

The Bisons, trailing by two goals with less than 10 minutes remaining in Sunday's American Hockey League game at Providence rallied for a 4-3 overtime victory that completed a two-game weekend sweep and vaulted them into second place in the Western Division. But they failed to gain ground on Rochester's high-scoring Americans, the division leaders.

Buffalo nipped Springfield 1-0 Saturday night behind the brilliant goal-tending of Dennis DeJordy but the Amerks bombed Pittsburgh 8-5 to maintain their six-point margin. Sunday, while Pat Hannigan was opening and closing the Bisons' comeback, Rochester whipped the Hornets again 5-2.

In Saturday's other games, Hershey topped Quebec 6-2, climbing to within four points of the Aces in the Eastern scramble, and Baltimore edged Cleveland 2-1.

Pa. Soccer Teams Lose Title Bids

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Two Pennsylvania college soccer teams have failed in their bids to win titles.

Previously unbeaten East Stroudsburg was defeated 4-0 Saturday by Michigan State University in the quarterfinal round of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) championships at East Lansing, Mich.

The victory put Michigan State in the semifinal round to be played at Brown University Thursday.

Meanwhile, Lincoln (Pa.) University was beaten 3-0 by Trenton State College in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) championship game at Upper Merion, N.J., Saturday.

56 COLLEGE BASKETBALL TILTS TUESDAY

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Basketballs will be bouncing all over the country this week as the college season gets underway. More than 56 major games are listed for opening night, Tuesday, with the appearance of top-ranked Michigan against Ball State one of the top attractions.

The Wolverines from the Big Ten gained their No. 1 spot in the pre-season Associated Press poll. They edged UCLA, the defending national champions, by a mere 10 points, 302-292, in the voting by an AP panel of 33 sports writers and broadcasters.

MICHIGAN AND UCLA

Michigan and UCLA, both of which encounter stern opposition on the road later in the week, far outdistanced the other 45 teams cited in the poll.

Wichita was ranked No. 3 with 113 points, Davidson No. 4 with 102, Duke No. 5 with 87, Vanderbilt No. 6 with 76, Syracuse No. 7 with 67, Kansas State No. 8 with 59, San Francisco No. 9 with 57 and St. John's of New York No. 10 with 55.

Michigan, with four of its starters back including Bill Buntin and Cazzie Russell, does not figure to have much trouble against Ball State, but the Wolverines tangle with fifth-ranked Duke on the road Saturday. The Blue Devils beat Michigan in the NCAA tourney semifinals last March in Kansas City.

UCLA, minus All-American Walt Hazzard, but with veteran Gail Goodrich and Fred Goss back, opens at Illinois Friday night and plays a second road game at Indiana State Saturday night. Coach Johnny Wooden's Bruins were unbeaten last season and will be shooting for their 31st straight victory against the Illini.

Bobby Marshman Critical Today

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Bobby Marshman, Pottstown, Pa., race car driver, is in very critical condition here from burns he suffered in a racing accident Friday.

Doctors at Brooke Army Medical Center said Marshman suffered second and third degree burns over 90 per cent of his body.

The 28-year-old Indianapolis 500 veteran crashed his Lotus Ford into a retaining wall at the Phoenix, Ariz., International Raceway after finishing a lap at an average speed of over 115 miles per hour.

He managed to walk from the wreckage and was flown from Arizona to San Antonio Sunday by an air evacuation team.

HUARTE NO. 2

Craig Morton, the California quarterback who has been called the best pro prospect in the nation, was drafted first by the Dallas Cowboys but didn't go until the 10th round in the AFL when Oakland picked him. Huarte, the Heisman Trophy winner, was selected No. 2 by the Jets and in the sixth round by Philadelphia's Joe Kuharich, an ex-Notre Dame coach.

Among the signings were Tom Myers, Northwestern quarterback by Detroit; Archie Sutton, Illinois tackle, by Minnesota; Vern Biggs, Jackson State defensive end by the Jets; Gus Otto, Missouri fullback and Rich Zecker, Utah State tackle, both by Oakland.

Canadians Seek Answers To Conflict Between Provinces, British Influence

EDITOR'S NOTE — What is Canada? That is a question troubling the northern neighbor of the United States. In the search for an answer, Canadians are going through new soul-searching. The following first of five stories sets out the various crises which Canada is experiencing.

By MAX HARRELSON

OTTAWA (AP) — When you journey across Canada today you find a country engrossed in self-examination. Its 19 million people are divided and disturbed over the future.

You find bitterness, name-calling, threats and sometimes violence. There are debates, seminars, editorials, floods of letters to newspapers and private discussions everywhere.

What is Canada? they ask. What does French-Canada want? Should Canada revise its constitution to give the provinces more authority? Should the traditional ties with the British crown be loosened, or broken?

MANY OLD PROBLEMS

Some of these problems are new. Others have worried Canadians, irritated them, and perplexed them over the years.

One, obviously, is Canada's proximity to the United States — a giant ten times as big in population, closely tied to Canada as an ally, deeply involved in the ownership of the country's industry and exporting U.S. culture in massive quantities to compete with Canada's own brand.

Canadians have a fierce national pride and they are trying hard to create a distinctive national image. Many have genuine fears that both their independence and their national personality may be snuffed out by what is intended as a friendly hug.

MANY ENVY U.S.

There are others who look across the border with envy at the higher wages paid by U.S. industry and at the lower cost of luxury items, such as automobiles, refrigerators and television sets.

A major complaint heard these days is that the Americans don't understand Canada and that they take Canada for granted.

Generally, however, Canadian-American relations have never been better. There has been a substantial improvement in the climate since the bitter anti-American attacks launched by former Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker in the 1962 political campaign.

POLITICAL DIVISIONS

Within Canada there are grave political divisions, caused by the bicultural nature of the country. As one analyst said, French-Canada has finally emerged into the 20th century and is demanding a new and enlarged role in government.

The separatist movement in Quebec, while not extensive, has resulted in an English backlash in some parts of Canada. This has been reflected to some extent in the parliamentary battle over a proposed new maple leaf flag to replace the red ensign of the British Merchant Marine, now used as Canada's flag.

FLAG ISSUE

But the flag issue and the question of Canada's relationship to the British crown are not simply disagreements between British and French Canadians.

A writer, Frank Kelley, living in Edmonton, Alberta, wrote recently in Maclean's magazine:

"I think it's time someone asked the Anglophiles what it is, exactly, that Canada owes England and what, exactly, England did for us that should justify our allegiance to her flag."

A Quebec member of Parliament, Auguste Choquette, predicted that Canada will become a republic within 15 or 20 years.

SEE POWER SHIFT

This hardly seems likely, but there does appear to be a good chance that there will be a shift of power from the federal government in Ottawa to the 10 provincial governments.

One of the complicating factors in the political scene is the fact that the federal government is trying to resolve the country's constitutional crisis without a clearcut majority in Parliament.

This is one of the reasons Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson is likely to call for a new national election next spring — after only two years in office. He and his advisers feel that conditions are right for a big Liberal victory, despite the dangers of holding an election while emotions are so inflamed.

ECONOMIC BOOM

For one thing, Canada is in the midst of a tremendous economic boom. New buildings are going up everywhere, new industries are opening, retail buying is setting records and unemployment is at the lowest level since 1956.

Douglas Fisher of the New Democrat party sees the next five to 10 years as a make-or-break period for Canada.

He said the country has reached the stage where it must have a showdown, regardless of how divisive it might be.

"It might be good to get questions out in the open," he said. "It's time we had a real torture period. It's inevitable."

MISSIONARY'S FAMILY SAFE IN CONGO RAID

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Four Clifford Schaub, a lifetime of fear was compressed into 10 minutes early this week. That's how long Schaub was separated from his wife and two children and herded into a square with 1,600 other hostages

SAY 4 FIRMS MONOPOLIZED ALARM TRADE

BOSTON (AP)—Grinnell Corp. of Providence, R. I., and three subsidiaries were convicted Friday of monopolizing the national fire and burglar alarm business. Grinnell said it would carry on an appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court.

U. S. District Judge Charles E. Wyzanski ordered Grinnell to file by April 1, 1966 a divestiture plan disposing of all its stock in the other firms.

The court ordered James Douglas Fleming, president of Grinnell, to cease his connection with the subsidiaries by the same date.

Enjoined with Grinnell from further restraint of trade were American District Telegraph Co. Holmes Electric Protective Co. and Automatic Fire Alarm Co.

In Stanleyville after shots rang through the city Tuesday as Congolese rebels shot to death 50 hostages.

"I had given up," says Schaub, a missionary who was on his third trip to the Congo. "I had seen the planes (U.S. Air Force transports), but I hadn't seen the paratroopers land."

"I was about frantic with fear. I wouldn't leave for the airport until I found my family. Another man saw them and told me where they were."

ARRIVE HOME

Friday, Schaub, his wife, Helen, and their two sons, Tim, 8, and Mark, 6, arrived at Greater Pittsburgh Airport.

It was a happy moment for the family, who lived in Marion Twp. in Beaver County. They were greeted by Schaub's mother and several other relatives. Schaub, who works for the Africa Christian Mission in Cincinnati, Ohio, blames the downfall of Stanleyville to the defection of government troops.

"Those of us who were there didn't think Stanleyville would fall," he said.

Schaub said he believes panic triggered the mass killings including Dr. Paul Carlson, a medical missionary from California.

Schaub said that before he returns to the Congo "they would have to offer much more security."

TEACHER TO GET HEARING

CHESTER, Pa. (AP) — Constance Brown, 29, an elementary school teacher, awaits a further hearing on a charge of hitting a 10-year-old pupil with a yardstick.

Miss Brown, arrested Saturday, said she struck the boy but did so only four times and did not hurt him. She said her pupils know she gives this sort of punishment.

She was arrested Saturday after Charles Kobielnik complained his son, Charles Jr., had been struck. The elder Kobielnik testified before Justice of the Peace James T. Ward of Upper Darby Twp., that he took his son to the hospital after he found bruises and welts on the boy's back and legs.

Young Charles said Miss Brown struck him after another pupil accused him of cheating in a test. He said he was struck 36 times.

Relatives Await Arrival of Ship

The government asserted Grinnell controls the other three defendants by stock ownership and interlocking directorates and that together, in 1959, the four grossed $53 million. This, the government said, was 90 per cent of the national total of fire and burglar alarm sales in the industry.

Grinnell also makes valves, pipe fitting and sprinkler systems. It has plants at Providence and Cranston, R. I.; Atlanta, Ga.; Columbus, Warren, and Cleveland, Ohio; Wrightsville, Pa.; Princeton, Ky., and Augusta, Ark.

The U.S. was visited by 734,993 travelers last year.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H. At all drug counters.

A Bit Of History About Early Settlers

By S. F. M. MacPHERSON

MORE ABOUT THE HARPERS

The data from the old "Adams Centinel" (later the "Star and Sentinel") pertaining to the Harper family, of Lower Marsh Creek, is continued at this time.

11. Monday, September 9, 1833 — "Married, Thursday, August 28, 1833, by the Rev. F. McFarland, James Harper, Esq., of Berks County, North Carolina, but formerly of this County (Adams County, Pennsylvania), to Miss Caroline Ellen Finley, the daughter of Samuel Finley, Esq., of Augusta County, Virginia."

Note:—Although there is no proof, at the present time, James Harper, Esq., could have been a son of John Harper, Senior, soldier in the War of the American Revolution, whose grave is in the Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian churchyard.

12. Monday, June 23, 1834 —

"Married, May 29th, 1834, by the Rev. Robert S. Grier, of Tom's Creek Presbyterian Church, Mr. John Harper, of Cumberland County, Pennsylvania, to Miss Margaret Harper, the daughter of Mr. John Harper, of Liberty Township, this County."

Note:—Without a doubt the daughter of John Harper, Senior, Revolutionary Soldier, of this County, whose grave is to be found in the Lower Marsh Creek burial ground.

13. Monday, November 9th, 1835 —

"Died in Chambersburg, Pennsylvania, on Tuesday, November 3rd, 1835, in the afternoon, Mrs. Nancy Harper, wife of Mr. George K. Harper, Editor of the 'Franklin Repository.' She had reached her fifty-sixth year, and was the mother of eleven children — of whom ten survive her. The disease which terminated her existence had been slowly but certainly doing its work for the past year. Her death had been long anticipated — but the blow was hard when it fell."

Note:—The George K. Harper, mentioned above, might well have been a brother of Robert Harper, founder and first Editor of the Adams Centinel. Robert Harper at one time lived in Chambersburg, for he was married there, on September 26, 1798, to Priscilla Dougherty. The tie-up is not to be proved, at this time, but a relationship most certainly existed.

14. Monday, May 30, 1836 — "Died, in Cumberland County, Pennsylvania, May 21st, 1836, in the twenty-fifth year of her age, Mrs. Margaret Harper, wife of Mr. John Harper, of said County, and daughter of Mr. John Harper, of Liberty Township, Adams County, Pennsylvania. She has left a husband and one daughter, about six weeks old, to mourn her loss."

Note:—Margaret Harper, the wife of John Harper, had been married only two years and a few days before her untimely death. Since her grave is not to be found at Lower Marsh Creek she is probably interred in one of the Presbyterian churchyards in Cumberland County.

5. Monday, April 17, 1836 — "Married, Tuesday, April 11th, 1836, by the Rev. H. L. Rice, of Franklin County, Pa., George K. Harper, Esq., Editor of the 'Franklin Repository,' to Miss Jane McClintic, all of Chambersburg, Pennsylvania."

Note:—Nancy Harper, the first wife of George K. Harper, Esq., had been dead only about five months when her widower remarried. His grief, apparently, was of brief duration.

16. Monday, August 7, 1837 —

"Married, Tuesday evening, August 1, 1837, by the Rev. David Denny, of Franklin County, Pennsylvania, Mr. James S. Black to Miss Mary Harper, the daughter of George K. Harper, both of Chambersburg, Pennsylv."

Crowd Stampedes At Rally; 23 Are Killed
JALAPA, Mexico (AP) — A crowd of 5,000 stampeded while leaving a political rally in a stadium Sunday, killing 23 persons and injuring 33 others.
The crowd had gathered for a tribute to Gov. Fernando Lopez Arias of Veracruz State. A speaker invited the villagers and farmhands to escort the governor to his residence and take part in a dance festival there.
The crowd surged forward in excitement and jammed up at the gates, a woman stumbled at the main exit, others tripped over her and the crowd panicked.
MINE EXPLODES
LAMIA, Greece (AP) — A World War II land mine exploded at a bridge dedication Sunday, killing 13 persons and injuring 54 others.
Police said the mine, buried in the earth, probably was set off by the weight of thousands of people moving about the site of the new Gorgopotamon bridge, destroyed by British and Greek forces in 1942 to cut German supply lines. The new bridge was not damaged.

BOYLE'S Grab Bag

NEW YORK (AP) — Jumping to conclusions:

Any country might have better foreign relations if it drafted the mothers of large families to serve in its diplomatic corps. A woman with from five to 10 kids has to settle more arguments in a day than the United Nations does in a year.

If you check the shirts of the average confidence man, you'll find he wears french cuffs. He also tends to be excessively neat.

Most cats nowadays live all their nine lives without ever seeing another cat or a mouse, let alone catching one. But the fact they no longer do anything to earn their keep never bothers them at all. Only man requires work to find happiness.

SAVE TIMBER

When you see some of the books they print today, it can't help but make you think Uncle Sam should do more to conserve our valuable timberlands.

Rarity often is a factor in beauty. If everyone saw 100 rainbows every day, who would bother to admire or praise them?

Nothing makes a middle-aged man more homesick for his own childhood than to see a boy wearing patched trousers.

You begin to grow up in this world when you realize that no joy — and no ball point pen — lasts forever.

One of the first things an executive learns is to make his signature indecipherable — as if it had been scrawled in a vast hurry. Actually, you can teach a chimpanzee to sign his name this way just as quickly as you can an executive.

SNOBBERY GALORE

When man invented the alarm clock, he already had gone too far down the road to automation ever to turn back.

There may be no honor among thieves, but there is plenty of snobbery. A safecracker looks down his nose at the robber who holds up a bank at gunpoint — and a professional forger sneers at them both. Few people can recall the moment in their lives when they finally quit believing in Santa Claus. And, of course, many never do.

The fellow who avoids going to the doctor in order to save money reaps one reward. He usually winds up by having the finest funeral in the block.

In the old days it was the women who used to imitate the men. Now we seem to be returning the trend. How else explains the fact you see so many men wearing pointed shoes lately?

The average dog in America is better fed than the average teenager.

The four hardest things in the world to keep secret are: secret loving, secret drinking, secret gambling and secret thinking.

DEATHS

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Army Capt. Joseph G. Caldwell, 27, quarterback of the 1958 West Point football team, died Sunday from injuries suffered in an auto accident Friday.

BENNINGTON, Vt. (AP) — William C. Fels, 48, president of Bennington College and former associate provost at Columbia University, died Sunday in New York City.

PARIS (AP) — Dr. Hans Halban, 56, a noted nuclear physicist, died Saturday. Dr. Halban, an Austrian-born naturalized citizen of France, was a member of the Frederic Joliot-Curie team which in March, 1939, announced the possibility of a chain reaction. He also had taught at Oxford and at the University of Paris.

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — Rear Adm. George R. Henderson, 81, a veteran of three wars, died Sunday in La Jolla, Calif.

GOP SENATORS GATHER TODAY

HARRISBURG (AP) — Senate Republicans gather in Harrisburg today to reorganize for the 1965-66 sessions with Majority Leader James S. Berger reportedly in line for the powerful post of president pro tempore.

Various GOP sources indicated over the past two weeks that Berger, floor leader since 1959, has enough support to succeed M. Harvey Taylor as the pro tem. "I should think he has the votes," said another knowledgeable Republican last night, declining identification.

Berger, of Potter County, said he was "very much" interested in the position.

"A number of people have talked to me about it and I've contacted others," he remarked in an interview.

"I'm not making any predictions, but I'd say it was encouraging at this point."

Taylor's term in the Senate ends today. He was defeated in the April primary for nomination to a seventh term.

Scientists Developing Nonlethal Weapons In Secret Work At Detrick

In a "hush-hush" atmosphere of top secrecy, the nation's most eminent military scientists at Fort Detrick, near Frederick, Md., are working at top speed to develop nonlethal and incapacitating weapons with which they believe the next U.S. war will be fought.

So ardently is the Army intensifying its research into the field of toxic warfare that there are more bacteriologists and virologists in Frederick than in any other American community except New York and Chicago, authorities admit.

On the Fort Detrick staff are 138 Ph.D.'s and 20 M.D.'s. The staff includes 47 microbiologists and top ranking specialists in virtually every other scientific and medical discipline.

PAYROLL MILLION MONTHLY
The research project now in progress at the Frederick base with its estimated payroll of $1 million monthly is admittedly long, uncertain and, some observers say, "almost unbelievable."

Its goal is the use of incapacitating but nonlethal agents from which a drugged and stupefied or sickened and prostrated enemy would quickly recover after being disarmed.

Among the strongest advocates of such weapons are top civilian officials of the Defense Department's Directorate of Defense Research and Engineering.

ESTABLISHED POLICY
But some proponents of this gentler art of toxic warfare acknowledge that popular revulsion against all chemical - biological weapons may make it difficult, or even impossible ever to use them.

It is long-established United States policy that chemical and biological agents will never be used by American forces except in retaliation for a chemical-biological attack.

A rare and cautiously guided counterpart at nearby Edgewood Arsenal recently illustrates part of the two-day press tour of the big "germ warfare" research center here and its chemical warfare military innovators' political quandary.

REGARDED AS MONSTERS
It is, according to one Army official, "secrecy that has become secretiveness."
"We can't educate the public," another spokesman said, "and we are regarded as monsters."

The restraints of public opinion that have limited congressional appropriations for such research, some military scientists believe, is partly of the Pentagon's own making.

RESTRICTED BRIEFING
"Every time we open our mouths we get clobbered," said a spokesman for the Army Materiel Command, which oversees the chemical - biological agencies. According, he said, "we do not go around selling our story."

A two - hour "briefing" by military and civilian scientists of the Army's Chemical Research and Development Laboratories at Edgewood, the headquarters of chemical - biological warfare research, was also tightly circumscribed under limits set in advance by the Army Materiel Command. Questions about chemical-biological or other weapons research were ruled "outside our area of discussion," and were politely but firmly turned away by the colonel in charge.

Instead, the briefing was intended to stress the peaceful by-products of chemical weapons research and the freedom of many of the hundreds of civilian scientists at the laboratories to pursue basic research in fields with useful civilian implications. One of those cited was bacterial genetics.

The briefing included an explanation by Dr. Bruno Papirneister, a resident biochemist who is widely known in his field, for his eight years of research with mustard gas compounds to discover the behavior of DNA, the transmission of genetic "information" from bacterial cells to their offspring.

Similar research is going on intensively in hospitals and universities around the world. It may have important implications for cancer research.

Proposals for the use of mustard gas treatment in cancer patients, now used experimentally in treating Hodgkin's disease, a form of cancer, were initiated by Edgewood Arsenal scientists, Dr. Papirneister said.

The Army pamphlet and other documents and statements in the public domain indicate that the Chemical Research and Development Laboratories here have increased research on agents of "nondestructive war."

The Army's chemical-biological appropriation for this year was more than $125 million, an increase of $55 million over the total four years ago. The Army wants more.

EXPECT HEAVY KILL OF DEER

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania's two-week deer season opened at 7 a.m. today with game officials content in the knowledge that every indication points to a successful harvest by sportsmen.

Glenn L. Bowers, deputy director of the State Game Commission, looked for a possible record kill. He said reports from wardens across the Commonwealth place the size of the deer herd at about 650,000 animals.

Harvey A. Roberts, chief of the commission's research division, said the size of the buck kill would depend on the number of hunters turning out and the weather conditions over the next two weeks.

Ideal weather would be for several inches of tracking snow to be on the ground with freezing temperatures to keep both the deer and the hunter on the move, he said.

CHURCHILL IS 90 YEARS OLD; VERY FEEBLE

By COLIN FROST

LONDON (AP)—Sir Winston Churchill climbed out of bed on his 90th birthday today, creaky of limb but sound of health.

"He's very well," said Sir Winston's doctor and long personal friend, Lord Moran, "and I can tell you something else—he still enjoys his daily cigar."

Lord Moran, 81, could have added that Britain's wartime leader still enjoys his daily brandy.

Sir Winston got up shortly before noon. Assisted by a male nurse—for he is very feeble—he dressed slowly and went downstairs at his London home to be greeted by his household.

BIRTHDAY KISS
Earlier, Lady Churchill, 79, greeted him with a birthday kiss and the light breakfast which her husband always enjoys with the newspapers in bed.

Sir Winston faced the avalanche of messages and gifts that poured in from all over the world. A message from Queen Elizabeth II was given to him first.

There were also messages from President Johnson and ex-Presidents Dwight D. Eisenhower and Harry S. Truman.

60,000 GREETINGS
Britain's Post Office Department estimated Sir Winston would receive a minimum of 60,000 greetings before the end of the day.

A heavy cake with the words "Happy Birthday" on it was wheeled into the Churchill residence this morning.

"What's Sir Winston doing?" replied a secretary in response to a question from one of the reporters outside his home.

"Why he's trying to spend the day quietly—looking forward to this evening."

That meant a birthday dinner with members of the family.

On the birthday eve, hundreds of well-wishers crowded outside Churchill's home near Hyde Park to sing "Happy Birthday, Sir Winston" and "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

The frail old man was helped to the window by his wife and a nurse.

GIRL'S BODY IS FOUND BURIED IN TINY GRAVE
BERWYN, Pa. (AP) — The body of a girl believed to be Mary Constance Evans, 15, missing since Oct. 24, was found Sunday, strangled and buried in a shallow grave on a Devon estate.

Mrs. Constance Evans, the girl's mother, identified several articles of clothing and a ring taken from the body as belonging to her daughter, police said.

Thomas Monteith, Chester County coroner, said an autopsy showed the girl died from strangulation. He said it could not be determined immediately if she had been sexually assaulted.

Further identification is to be made today through dental records. It also will be determined when she was killed and how long her body had been in the 15-inch-deep grave.

FOUND FRESH GRAVE
The body was found by Joseph J. Celsi, 37, of Berwyn, as he was walking through the estate of Theodore K. Warner Jr., looking for pine cones for Christmas decorations.

He told Easttown Township police he spotted a "freshly dug hole" behind a large pine tree and saw "lots of brown hair around it."

"I dug a little further and began to uncover a body about five feet long. I couldn't believe my eyes," Celsi said.

Chester County Dist. Atty. A. Alfred Delude said authorities would sift the area around the grave for clues.

Since the girl was reported missing from her West Goshen Township home on Oct. 24, she had been the object of an intensive search.

At one time, the search party grew to 600, including men on horseback and skindivers.

First Job Camps Ready In January

WASHINGTON (AP) — The director of President Johnson's antipoverty program predicts it will be in full swing by January.

By that time, Sargent Shriver said on NBC's "Meet the Press" Sunday, 22 Job Corps camps will be under construction, the first camps will be open and up to 25,000 volunteers will be enrolled.

Shriver said as many as 500,000 persons may be affected directly by the poverty program in its first year — with millions more affected indirectly.

T. JEFFERSON MIGHT SHIVER AT NEW TREND

By RAYMOND J. CROWLEY
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Founding Fathers, especially Thomas Jefferson, would be amazed; in fact, they probably would be shuddering.

Jefferson, an exemplar of 18th century enlightenment, was a man who believed human reason, if rightfully applied, could solve great social and political problems.

What would he find today? Statesmen beginning to abdicate reason's throne, beginning to turn their problems over to robots, to computers.

SPLIT CONTROL
The trend, if it can be called one, was highlighted in Connecticut the other day. There the members of the state legislature were faced with what might seem a relatively simple problem, though one of immense importance.

The U.S. Supreme Court has ruled state legislative districts must be equal in population so far as practicable. This requires much reworking of most state legislatures.

In Connecticut, the Democrats control one house and the Republicans the other. They were unable to sit down, reason together and come up with a solution.

CANCELLED ELECTION
The deadlock got so bad the Nov. 3 election for the legislature was cancelled. The old assembly is holding over.

A three-judge federal court, which has taken a great interest in the subject, finally appointed a special master to come up with a reapportionment plan in case the legislature continues to fail.

Who is the special master? Morris S. Davis, director of the Yale University Computer Center. His robots are green on the problem of reapportionment; they have been laboring hitherto on such subjects as linguistics and astronomy. But Davis expresses confidence they will meet this new challenge.

DEVELOP ADAGE
While Jefferson probably would shake his head over the failure of men to reason together, he would be vastly interested in computers. He was a great gadgeteer himself, an inventor.

He would recognize at once that computers are only a sort of extension of the human brain. They cannot do anything the brain cannot do, only they can do it faster. Their output is only as good as the material fed into their maw.

Computer men have an adage: "Garbage in, garbage out."

SUGGESTED ELSE-WHERE
Special master Davis does not intend to feed any garbage in. "We hope," he said, "that we will be able to deliver an objective, nonpartisan system by approaching the problem as one of mathematics, rather than politics."

Suggestions have been made in other states, too, that computers rush to the aid of statesmen.

NO EMOTIONS
Speaking about New York, an official of the National Municipal League said: "There is no reason why in the state of New York a system of compact, contiguous districts, well balanced in population, cannot be set up within even a week's time.

"All it needs is people with a thorough knowledge of the process, technical help, computers and a conscience."

Conscience is, of course, exactly what computers lack; they have no emotions, no sense of compassion.

The airman is a 1964 graduate of Littlestown High School.

WILL NOT OUST FBI DIRECTOR

NEW YORK (AP) — Newsweek magazine said today that President Johnson has decided to replace J. Edgar Hoover as chief of the FBI.

The White House promptly denied it.

"The President never heard of such a plan and never heard of such an idea."

The magazine said Hoover "has become a figure of controversy — not merely to longtime leftist critics but among old admirers who wonder whether he has forgotten the motto on his desk."

The motto, inscribed on a small brass plaque: "Two feet on the ground are worth one in the mouth."

Hoover held one of his rare news conferences Nov. 18, in which he told women reporters that civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. is "the most notorious liar in the country." He also denounced the Warren Commission for its criticism of the FBI's role in the events preceding President John F. Kennedy's assassination.

Newsweek said: "One such disenchanted fan (of Hoover's) is Lyndon B. Johnson who had decided by last week that he must find a new chief of the FBI. It was a tough decision."

WASHINGTON (AP) — Undersecretary of the Treasury Robert V. Roosa has resigned his post, effective Jan. 31, for personal financial reasons.

tiguous districts, well balanced in population, cannot be set up within even a week's time.

"All it needs is people with a thorough knowledge of the process, technical help, computers and a conscience."

SPECTER OF RED CHINA IS HAUNTING U.N.

By A. I. GOLDBERG
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The specter of Red China bulks big over the U.N. General Assembly opening Tuesday.

Communist China's new role as a nuclear power, the question of its right to China's seat in the assembly and to the Security Council veto, its threat of domination in Southeast Asia, its infiltration in Europe, Africa, the Middle East and Latin America — all these things will color the debates of the 115 nations at the 15 weeks until the scheduled end March 5.

Nationalist China, with strong U.S. support, has managed to hold the China seat despite a mounting demand for Red China representation over the years.

NUCLEAR POWER NOW
Condemned for the part it played against U.N. forces in the Korean War, Red China has been thrust back year after year with the slogan that it must not be allowed to shoot its way into the United Nations.

This year it has a nuclear weapon, the device it exploded early this fall, and its supporters are saying no universal disarmament program can be effective unless the Chinese Communists are represented in the U.N. debates on disarmament and in the U.N.-sponsored Disarmament Committee of 18.

This argument has been added to the previous contention that a nation of 650 million or more — one-quarter of the world's population — must be heard in U.N. discussions.

Secretary-General U Thant has used those arguments. Britain has voted for Red China's seating. France this year recognized the Peking government and is expected to swing strongly in favor of a move by seven nations to make the seating question a major issue for debate in the full assembly.

NEW DRIVE UNDERWAY
Cambodia, Indonesia, Mali, Congo Brazzaville, Mali, Guinea and Albania are sparking the new drive to seat the Communists.

The United States still voices confidence it can head off the drive, but U.N. diplomats feel this may be the last year the Chinese Reds can be stopped.

The assembly opens Tuesday with its present complement of 112 members on the customary note of silent prayer or meditation for one minute.

Sometime during the opening session it is expected a point of order will be raised to insure speedy admission of Malawi (formerly Nyasaland), Malta and Zambia (formerly Northern Rhodesia) into membership, raising the membership total to 115.

WILL REPLACE OUTER LIMITS ON SATURDAYS

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — One of the few traditions of network television is that the death of a program is never formally announced. It usually is reluctantly admitted only when the replacement program is heralded.

Over the weekend ABC, not unexpectedly, announced a new program to fill its 7:30-8:30 p.m. spot on Saturday nights, starting Jan. 23. It used about 300 words to extol the series, "The King Family," as "an hour of music and fun" but not one word was spent on "The Outer Limits," a science-fiction anthology series which will slip away quietly in the middle of its second season.

TIME SPOT VICTIM

The demise of the program, which often featured weird characters from outer space, is an interesting subject for speculation, particularly in a season when creatures from outer space and other worlds are the vogue.

It seems most likely, however, that "The Outer Limits" was a victim of a tough time slot. It was renewed after a pretty good year in an early Monday evening hour. ABC shifted it to Saturday, in an hour which also gave the network trouble last season — "Hootenanny" died there.

It was, for the most part, a quiet and uneventful television weekend. Steve Lawrence and Juliet Prowse were stylish and interesting to watch Friday night in an NBC special. Gordon and Sheila MacRae were the bright spots in Ed Sullivan's CBS hour Sunday night, particularly Sheila's devastating mimicking of Carol Channing and Barbra Streisand.

Recommended tonight: "Young People's Concert," CBS, 7:30-8:30 EST — The New York Philharmonic Orchestra and Leonard Bernstein; "The Other World of Winston Churchill," NBC, 10-11 — an exploration of the British statesman's interest in painting, based on his own book and narrated by Paul Scofield.

JUNIOR MISS IS SELECTED

SHILLINGTON, Pa. (AP) — Doris Ann Perkys, a 17-year-old hazel-eyed brunette from Reading, is Pennsylvania's Junior Miss VII.

The Reading High School senior, representing Berks County, won the Pennsylvania Junior Miss title at the seventh annual contest here Saturday night. She also won the Poise and Appearance trophy.

Marna H. Cupp of Media, representing Delaware County, was first runnerup and also won the Scholastic Achievement award. Other finalists were: Kathleen Link of Pittsburgh, Greater Wilkesburg Junior Miss, who also won the Creative and Performing Arts award; Karen M. Wagner of Collegeville, representing Montgomery County and Kathleen Walter, of Scottsdale, Fayette County.

Elaine Mensch, of Elysburg, the Susquehanna Valley representative, won the Youth Fitness trophy and Loan Christy, of New Wilmington, Lawrence County, the Personality award.

SAY PRENATAL CARE CRUCIAL

"Adequate prenatal care for expectant mothers, especially those in low income groups, is our nation's best preventive measure against mental retardation which results from premature birth," Mrs. Katherine B. Oettinger, chief of the Children's Bureau in the Welfare Administration, Department of Health, Education and Welfare, said today.

Mrs. Oettinger pointed out that little or no prenatal care almost doubles the incidence of prematurity. For the premature baby, the risk of mental retardation is increased twenty-fold. Moreover, without proper medical supervision, the expectant mother is more likely to develop complications which can lead to the birth of a retarded child.

"The lack of proper health care during pregnancy among the poor and culturally deprived is a national tragedy," Mrs. Oettinger said. "In many of our cities, between one-fourth and one-half of the women delivered at public hospitals have had little or no prenatal care. They find it difficult to travel to distant, centralized clinics. Some are not eligible for prenatal care because of residence requirements. Many simply do not understand the need for adequate prenatal care."

An attack on these problems is authorized under the maternal and child health and mental retardation planning amendments of 1963. These amendments, administered by the Children's Bureau, will help increase the number of prenatal and postnatal clinics and bring them close to the population served in high-risk, low-income neighborhoods.

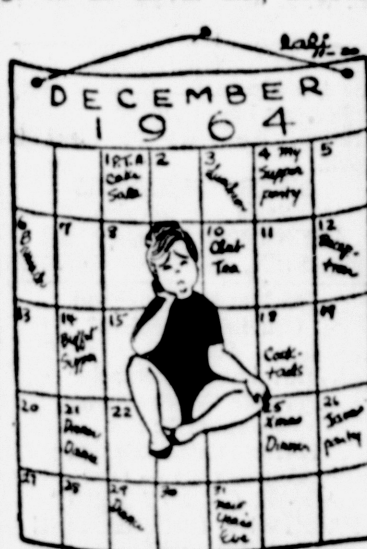

Ireland was the fourth most popular destination named by passport recipients in the first quarter of 1964, according to the U.S. Passport Office.

NO TIME FOR REDUCING.

This is hardly the season to go on an all-out diet, however much you need to lose weight. Only an unregenerated Scrooge could turn away from holiday tables laden with party fare.

So what can the weight-worrier do, poor thing? Well, she can hold the line by curtailing one meal a day. It must not be breakfast. You need the support of a solid breakfast to get through the busy days ahead.

For most women, luncheon is the logical meal to skip on. But it could well be the evening meal on quiet nights at home. In any case, menus should total under 300 calories. As suggestions:

- Cup vegetable-beef soup; thin slice toast, spread lightly with whipped butter; big red apple.
- Two poached eggs on slice of water-thin toast; green salad, tossed with dieter's dressing; tangerine.
- Broiled breast of chicken; six asparagus stalks, lemon garnish; unsweetened applesauce, two vanilla wafers.
- Fresh pear, stuffed with cottage cheese (4 tbs.) on lettuce leaves; 2 slices melba toast; small slice pound or sponge cake.
- Cup clear bouillon; broiled mushrooms on thin slice toast; lemon Jello.

In addition, you may have coffee, tea or skim milk. A glass of skim milk adds 88 calories. And remember, sugar in beverages costs 25 calories per teaspoon.

Reduce without starving! Send for my pure-sized booklet, "DIET AND LIKE IT," which includes: Shortcuts to dieting; a calorie calculator; simplified menu planning; your model weight. For your copy, write Mary Sue Miller, Box 158, The Gettysburg Times, Dundee, Ill., enclosing 20 cents in coin and a LARGE, SELF-ADDRESSED, STAMPED ENVELOPE.

Banks Ready To Take Care Of Economy Shift

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK, Nov. 30 (AP) — The nation's banks believe that by and large they are in shape to take current money tightening moves in stride and still handle the demands of an expanding economy.

Borrowing may cost a little more. Speculation may be discouraged a bit. But the banks feel the results might help rather than hinder. And they say most banks are liquid enough to meet safety needs and also expand credit further if required — and this in the face of the fact that the money and credit supply has been expanding rapidly since 1960.

RAISE INTEREST RATE

Raising of interest rates on short term loans last week was primarily to protect the dollar from any international turmoil as a result of Britain's pound sterling crisis.

The intent apparently still is to keep long-term interest rates from rising enough to choke off business expansion at home. These rates can affect both business and consumer borrowing and planning.

Bankers contend there is plenty of lendable money around to meet all reasonable needs of a growing economy.

COSTLIER LOANS

So they say the moderate tightening of money and credit in coming weeks, as indicated by the international monetary moves to make loans costlier, need pose little threat to this nation's goals for economic growth.

They admit that one of the reasons for the big increase in bank credit has been the stability of interest rates. Bank credit is measured by loans and investments. Such credit has increased at an annual rate of 8 per cent since 1960, and has spurred at an 11.3 cent rate since July.

The money supply also has expanded rapidly. In the 1958-60 expansion the annual rate of growth was 1.2 per cent. But the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis notes that since June of this year the growth rate has been 5.8 per cent.

RESERVES RISE

The bank says this was fostered by the increase in the growth rate of reserves of Federal Reserve member banks. From May to October total reserves rose at a 6.3 per cent annual rate, but the rate from August on was 8.6 per cent.

But with all the growth in bank credit, the banks have maintained a liquidity that is higher than at the peak of the 1958-60 business expansion, according to the economists at the Chase Manhattan Bank of New York. They say this means banks can still expand credit if need be.

So they add that the Federal Reserve "could well assume a tighter posture without causing the banks undue difficulty."

Emmitsburg

Girl Jumps Ship To Avoid Castro

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — A Cuban girl jumped from a Havana-bound cargo ship into the Atlantic Sunday "because I would have chosen death rather than return to Cuba." She was picked up almost immediately by the Coast Guard.

Frail, blonde Ana Olga Capetany, 19, said "it was a spur of the moment decision." She said she saw a Coast Guard cutter and decided to jump while help was nearby.

The cutter was observing the vessel, Fundador, en route from Montreal to Havana.

The girl asked for political asylum and was turned over to immigration authorities.

300 Cuban Exiles Fighting In Congo

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — About 300 Cuban exiles are fighting Peking-backed rebels in the Congo, informed sources say.

"They might be called mercenaries since they receive pay for their services, but actually they are training for forthcoming warfare (against Fidel Castro) in Cuba," said one exile.

The Cuban brigade in the Congo, the source said, includes 220 infantrymen and 70 aviation men, including 45 pilots.

Two Men Are Killed When Shell Explodes

ABILENE, Tex. (AP) — An artillery shell found at a former Army training site exploded at a ranch house Sunday, killing two ranch hands and critically injuring two others.

The shell, picked up at the site of old Camp Barkley 28 miles south of this West Texas city, detonated when it was accidentally dropped.

Salvador Hernandez of Wintgate and Jess Rodriguez, 14, of Knox City died.

Jesse Hernandez, 32, an uncle of Salvador Hernandez, lost his right arm and both legs. Joe Rodriguez, 14, twin brother of the youth, also was injured.

Taneytown

TANEYTOWN — The annual banquet of the Chamber of Commerce was attended recently by 236 members and guests, who heard Hobson H. Adcock, special agent, FBI, discuss juvenile delinquency. Entertainment was provided by Mel Ehrin, York comic-pianist.

The president, Frank Dunham, introduced the following new members: Joseph Funk, Kenneth Nusbaum, Earl L. Myers, Arthur Garvin, Robert Flickenger, Henry I. Reindollar Jr., Sterling W. Fritz, Paul C. Copenhaver, Merle Ohler, James M. Small, John Sternesky, Wayne Baumgardner and John Perry.

Boy Scout Troop 348 will conduct a rag and paper drive Saturday. Scouts are asked to report at 8 a.m.

The 3,500-word Magna Carta in Latin was translated into English and read to King John by the archbishop of Canterbury.

Salvador Hernandez, 32, an uncle of Salvador Hernandez, lost his right arm and both legs. Joe Rodriguez, 14, twin brother of the youth, also was injured.

Later, as Edgmon was on patrol, he received a call to investigate a fatal traffic accident south of Anadarko.

The victim was Robert Allen Lucas, 19, son of the man Edgmon had helped bury less than 12 hours earlier.

FIRM AIDED BY ARA BANKRUPT

WASHINGTON (AP) — The General Accounting Office says that Area Redevelopment Administration loans made to a Frackville, Pa., company may cost the government $230,000.

Comptroller General Joseph Campbell said Saturday he has informed Congress that the loans to the Roustabout Co., which stayed in business only six months, were made "imprudently."

The loans were made to assist in financing production of a three-wheel light delivery truck.

The company was incorporated in 1961 on investments of $94,000, including ARA loans of $342,000 made against the advice of the Small Business Administration. Bankruptcy proceedings started against the company in November of 1963.

"ARA's decision to disregard the SBA data may, on the basis of SBA estimates dated June 25, 1964, result in a loss to the government of $230,000," the accounting office said.

Son Killed Afer His Dad Is Buried

ANADARKO, Okla. (AP) — Oklahoma highway patrolman Filmore Edgmon of Anadarko served as a pallbearer Saturday at the funeral of a longtime friend, John A. Lucas, 65, of Anadarko.

Later, as Edgmon was on patrol, he received a call to investigate a fatal traffic accident south of Anadarko.

The victim was Robert Allen Lucas, 19, son of the man Edgmon had helped bury less than 12 hours earlier.
